ADVENT MISSION PROJECT

For this year's Advent Mission Project, we will be collecting Christmas gifts for children in area families who are struggling financially. There are two special giving opportunities to participate in, each supporting a different organization.

Adopt a Family — Metro Detroit Youth Club

Help make Christmas special for an entire family of children through the Metro Detroit Youth Club, based in Royal Oak. To adopt a family, contact Heather McNutt, Missions Coordinator at missions@rofum.org before November 23. You will be asked to purchase two gifts and a stocking stuffer for each child. Families range in size from 1–6 children, so you can request a family size that works best for you. You can drop these off at the church office.

Giving Tree — Cass Community Social Services

You can also help bring Christmas joy to children in Detroit by participating in our Giving Tree! Simply select one or two tags from the tree on the Connections Table in the Gathering Space, purchase the suggested gifts, and return them unwrapped to the church collection bin near the Connections Table by December 8.

You are also welcome to donate any fun, unwrapped toy of your choice—the Giving Tree tags are simply there to provide ideas. These gifts will help stock the Cass Community Social Services Christmas Store, where nearly 300 Detroit families will "shop" for Christmas gifts for their children.

SPREAD THE CHEER THIS CHRISTMAS!

Saturday, December 5 | 10:00-11:00 a.m.

This Christmas season, let's make sure everyone in our church family feels remembered and loved!

Christmas Cards:

Purchase or create Christmas cards and mail them any time before Christmas. For some of our church family, your card may be the only one they receive this season. A simple card can mean so much!

Christmas Cookies & Treats:

Help us continue our Christmas Cookie Delivery tradition! Bake or purchase two dozen of your favorite cookies or holiday treats before Sunday, December 5, and bring them to church that day. Together, we'll assemble plates and bags of goodies to deliver to members of our congregation who could use a little extra love this season.

Deliveries & Fellowship:

We also need volunteers to deliver these treats and spend a little time visiting with the recipients. Sharing conversation and fellowship is just as meaningful as the goodies themselves!

There's a way for everyone to participate, kids and adults alike! Whether you make or mail cards, bake or buy treats, help package goodies, or make deliveries, you can help make Christ's love real this Christmas season. Scan the QR code to sign up and spread some Christmas joy!

MEMORIAL BANNER HANGING IN THE SANCTUARY ON ALL SAINTS DAY

The Memorial Banner is dedicated to God's glory and carries 543 bells in memory of loved ones from 1995 until 2002. The banner was created in two colors: GREEN for the celebration of life. GOLD for the glory of God and Christ's eternal victory over death. We remember with thanksgiving those persons who touched us with their love.

Happy Thanksgiving

Royal Oak First Family!

We give thanks for the many ways God's love shows up in our lives, and one of the greatest blessings is you. We are grateful for the kindness, generosity, and spirit of service that fill this community and makes Royal Oak First a place where Christ's love is made real every day!

With gratitude and blessings for the season,
Royal Oak First United Methodist Church Staff

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

This Sunday, we will do one of the most tender and beautiful things we get to do as a church. We will remember people we love. During worship, we will speak aloud the names of 17 people from our congregation who have died in the past year. Seventeen. It's easy to hear that as just a number. But these are people we knew and loved. Al and Patty and Gloria, Bob and David, Anne and Elsa, and so many others whose lives became part of our lives.

I knew most of them well. Some really well. I loved them. One of the gifts of being their pastor was knowing their families, hearing their stories, and celebrating the wonderful, ordinary, extraordinary lives they lived. I have little memories of each of them. A conversation here, a laugh there, a particular smile or something they always said. And even as I sit here writing this letter, those memories are coming back to me. As we Methodists like to say, my heart is strangely warmed. Isn't that something? Even in the sadness of missing someone, there can be such joy in remembering them.

Of course, Sunday isn't just about those 17 names. We will make room for all the people we carry in our hearts. Some we lost just recently. Others have been gone for years, but we still find ourselves wishing we could pick up the phone, hear their voice, or sit across the table from them one more time.

I think about my dad and my best friend from high school, both of whom I miss dearly. And my mom, who has been gone for nearly 30 years. I'm grateful for a Sunday when I don't have to pretend I don't still miss them; when I can simply bring that love and that longing with me to church, knowing I'll be surrounded by people doing the very same thing.

The church traditionally celebrates All Saints Day on November 1. We've set aside this Sunday for our own service of remembrance, making room in a busy season for something that matters so much.

And so, I've been wondering; Who will you be remembering this weekend? Whose smile comes to mind? Whose laugh can you still hear? Whose love is still making a difference in the person you are becoming?

I hope you'll come on Sunday. Bring your memories, your gratitude, your tears, and maybe even a good story or two. There is room for all of it. And there's room for all of them, too.

All the love,
Pastor Jeff Nelson
