Hurricane Harvey Relief

Many of us have watched, feeling helpless, as our brothers and sisters in Texas and Louisiana have been pummeled by historic and catastrophic storms and flooding. Michigan United Methodists have asked, "What can we do right now to help?" Here are two ways you can help.

Keep in prayer those who have lost loved ones, homes and property, and for the first responders who are risking their own lives to get others to safety.

The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) is sending buckets filled with cleaning supplies and other relief kits into the affected areas. UMCOR is often one of the first to respond in times of disaster. At Royal Oak First we are collecting money to send to UMCOR to support their efforts in helping the victims of Hurricane Harvey. Our donation to UMCOR guarantees that 100% of your gift goes directly to disaster relief.

You can make your contributions to Royal Oak First United Methodist Church and indicate that it is for Hurricane Harvey Relief on your check or envelope. You may also make an online donation by visiting our website at www.rofum.org. Go to the giving area and click on the UMCOR box under the Missions Category.

If you have any questions, please contact Laurie O'Donnell at 248 541-4100 or lodonnell@rofum.org

Dear Friends,

Welcome home! It is good to back, isn't it?

Summer is wonderful with vacations, camps, beaches, fireworks, festivals, trips Up North, and long warm nights. Summers are such a welcome change of pace.

But there is something equally wonderful about September, isn't there? We have gotten the boys back to school (how did we end up with a middle schooler?) We are settling into a new routine (we now have a family Google Calendar to try to keep track of everybody's comings and goings!) And we are getting excited about Packer Football (one of these times the Lions might win us over...but not likely!)

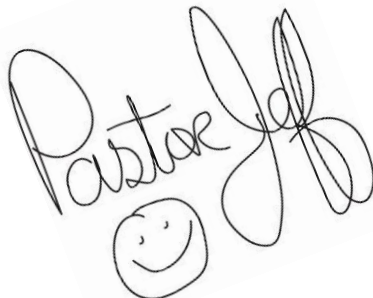

And September means getting back to church. Our choirs and musical ensembles are back to regular rehearsals. Sunday School is geared up and ready. Youth Group is meeting again every Sunday night. Our Bible Studies are all starting back up. Our Mission team is planning ways to make Christ's love real beyond our walls. We are ready to get reconnected with God and with each other.

So, welcome home! If Royal Oak First has been your church home for a while now, then you know how special this place is. If you are newer to our community, then please know how glad we are that you are here. We hope you are finding ways to make good friends and use your gifts and talents to make a real difference.

After our 11:00 service this weekend, we will have a Kickoff Celebration with food, inflatables, games, and fun! Please plan on joining us as we launch this new year into full swing.

Once again - Welcome Home!

Grace and Peace,
