Safe Harbor Concert

Sunday, November 5, 7:00 pm, Sanctuary

In times of crisis, we all need a safe place, a sanctuary, a safe harbor. The music ministries of Royal Oak First are joining forces to offer Safe Harbor, a concert benefitting victims of this season's devastating hurricanes as well as people who need shelter right here in Royal Oak. Come hear the choir and orchestra explore themes of shelter and family, culminating in a performance of Antonio Vivaldi's magnificent Gloria. Admission is free, childcare is available, and an offering will be taken to offer safe harbor to those who so desperately need it.

Angelus Alumni Choir

Sunday, November 26, 11:00 am

All Angelus Alumni currently in school and/or in town on Thanksgiving weekend are invited to sing Leonard Cohen's "Hallelujah" at the 11:00 am worship service on November 26. We will rehearse at 10:00 am in Room #414 on the 4th floor. You can be part of the choir, and even sing a short solo if you're up for it! Contact Jennifer Semivan at jsemivan@rofum.org for more information.

Piano Club

We are continually amazed by how many people in our congregation play the piano. Have you ever thought how much fun it might be to all get together to play for and with each other, to possibly study pieces together in a non-threatening environment, to become better players, and to study what's behind some of the pieces we might play? Let's not let the choir members have all the fun. If you are interested, contact Charlene Faunt at charlene.faunt@gmail.com or George Marck at gmarck@rofum.org or 248-766-8868. We're thinking of meeting once a month on a Wednesday afternoon. If there's enough interest, maybe we could do an evening once a month.

Night of Silence: Feast of Carols 2017

Sunday, December 10, 4:00 pm

In the busy season around Christmas, we all need a moment of stillness, of beauty, and of God's quiet presence. This year, the combined music ministries of Royal Oak First present Night of Silence, this year's Feast of Carols. Children's choirs, handbells, instrumentalists, and our adult choir, Sanctus, will join forces to offer you an hour of songs, smiles, and at least one surprise! A love offering will be taken to support our annual youth summer camp. Mark your calendars and don't miss this highlight of our season! Contact Caleb Williams at caleb@rofum.org with any questions.

Now Hiring!

We are looking to hire a Nursery Coordinator for Royal Oak First! This position would require you to be present on Sundays from 8:30 am to 12:30 pm with up to 6 additional hours per month as needed. The Nursery Coordinator will work with the Director of Children, Youth & Family to recruit, train, schedule, and supervise nursery staff for both Sundays and mid-week programming as needed. They will be responsible for making sure the space is clean, safe, and prepared for the children. Please send résumés to Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org.

STEWARDSHIP

Where Does the Money Go?

As good stewards of Royal Oak First we support it with our prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness. As the fall Stewardship Campaign gets underway, Now Is the Time to look more closely at how our gifts support Royal Oak First's mission to be an inclusive Christian community in the heart of Royal Oak serving God, one another, and the world. This pie chart shows how our budget dollars are allocated among our ministries.

Budget Areas

Worship and Arts includes our Thursday, Saturday, and Sunday worship services in addition to other special services and programs throughout the year. Worship is the heartbeat of all we do!

The budget for Congregational Care supports visitation for hospital patients and shut-ins as well as other support services for members of our congregation and affiliated people who need special assistance.

Children, Families and Youth covers our Sunday School, Bible Study, and other special programs. Holy Cow, our midweek elementary choir and community program continues to grow. Sunday nights you will find dozens of high school and middle school students learning and growing together.

For 2017, the Missions Team has chosen to focus on Cass Community Social Services, Common Ground Sanctuary, Covenant Health Clinic, Hands 4 Detroit, Methodist Children's Home Society, N.O.A.H. Project, Redford-Brightmoor Initiative, and Royal Oak First Lunch Program. Additionally, our Mission dollars support special mission needs such as hurricane relief. The pie chart does not include designated mission contributions or donations of goods (think socks and pillows) so actual mission giving is significantly more than the amount shown.

Discipleship: We have nearly twenty different Connecting Groups for people to grow in their faith in Christ and in their friendships with each other. We have bible studies and book groups, groups that knit together and groups that repair homes together. Some of our groups meet at the church, others meet in homes and some meet at local pubs and coffee shops. Helping people make lifelong friends is one of the ways your gifts make a difference.

Hospitality: We have welcomed over fifty new people into the life of the church this past year. We are committed to becoming one of the most welcoming churches in the neighborhood, learning names, discovering passion and inviting people to connect and serve, that is how our hospitality ministry is making a real difference.

Conference Giving is often referred to as apportionments. United Methodist congregations are connected via a chain of conferences. We support the ministries of the larger United Methodist denomination through our apportioned funds, a method of giving that proportionally allocates the church wide budget to conferences and local churches. All of us giving together allow United Methodists to do together what we cannot do alone.

One final question:

Where is the money we spend for our building and staff salaries in the budget dollars shown in the pie chart? Answer: The money is prorated among our ministries because the building and staff exist to support our mission.

SERMON NOTES

[illegible]

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I've found myself singing and humming, "How Great Thou Art" a lot lately. It is one of those old songs that anchors me in my faith. I feel like I have known that song my whole life. It was probably sung to me by my parents when they rocked me to sleep as a baby. The hymn was in regular rotation at the First United Methodist Church in Rhineland, Wisconsin. It has blessed the funerals of so many of my favorite saints. Its rhythm is simply part of who I am, "Then sings my soul, my savior God to Thee..."

I find myself singing its familiar tune these days because I am looking for something familiar, something tried and true. There is a lot shifting in the culture around us. Things are changing. Our community is changing. Our building is changing. Our church is changing. That is why I find myself humming an old tune—not in the hopes of returning to some bygone time, but rather to bring the strength and faith of where I have been into the future. "Then sings my soul, my savior God to Thee..."

Royal Oak First has a proud history. You have been an anchor of faith in this community for decades. Now is the time to carry our faith filled past into this exciting and uncertain future. Some things are going to look different. Some things will sound different. There will be different people from different backgrounds.

Here is what remains:

Faith remains.

Friendships remains.

Love remains.

As we prepare to make our financial commitment for the next year, remember that NOW is the TIME to carry our faith forward into the future.

Grace and Peace,
