Friday Fun Night: White Elephant Christmas Party

Friday, December 22, 7:00 pm – 9:00 pm

Join us for a White Elephant gift exchange. Bring a silly gift to give away. Look around the house for something you don't need or want. Perhaps that lovely purse that Aunt Jo gave you and you never used!

We will also learn how to decorate Christmas cookies like a pro! You can decorate Christmas cookies and share them with someone you love (or maybe eat them yourself!)

You can create an ornament or two to hang on your Christmas Tree or give as a gift. Gift-wrapping stations will be available.

Contact Laurie O'Donnell at lodonnell@rofum.org or Mary Blazeovich at micommunitycore@gmail.com for more information.

What is Your Favorite Holiday Recipe?

Do you have a special baked goodie that you make for Christmas? Maybe it's a special family recipe, or maybe you found it on the internet and want to try it out. We are looking for people to bring their favorite holiday desserts for coffee hour during Advent (the month of December). If you have a recipe you have always wanted to share, consider signing up now for a Sunday in December by emailing George Marck at gmarck@rofum.org. If you are willing to share your recipe we would be happy to print copies for you to share.

First Adventures Spring Trek 2018

April 2 – 7, 2018

Six days of fellowship with some semi-serious hiking, rock climbing, and rappelling. This is being organized as a family oriented gathering but with special arrangements to accommodate unaccompanied youth whose parents are unable to participate. Go your own way or stick with the pack. Our base camp will be Fall Creek Falls State Park in Spencer, Tennessee, located on the Cumberland Plateau. We will hold informational meetings on Sunday, January 7, at 1:00 pm and Wednesday, January 10, at 7:00 pm in Fellowship Hall (same information at both meetings). Contact Jon Cline at 248-561-2975 or email at justjon123456@outlook.com for more information.

LETTER FROM THE PREACHER

'Twas the week before Christmas and all through the pews
People flipped through their bulletins, reading the news:
The stewardship series called "Now Is the Time"
Surpassed all its goals and has been set to rhyme.
The money, you see, is the means, not the ends,
Creating a chance to make new life-long friends,
To worship, to welcome, to care, to forgive,
And to make a real difference right here where we live.
And just like the presents tucked under your tree,
The money you're spending, that isn't the key.
It's loving each other, it's lending a hand,
It's singing or playing guitar in the band,
It's serving Thanksgiving, it's knitting a shawl,
It's sharing a vision of God's love for all.

(Yes, setting this message in verse is quite cheesy,
And maybe perverse, but it sure wasn't easy.)

What a joy it was last Sunday night as around 500 people squeezed into the sanctuary for this year's Feast of Carols. We're already planning for next year to make sure that everyone who wants to be there has a spot to park both their car and themselves. To anyone there that night, it was obvious that this congregation cares deeply about kids and about music. It's just that simple.

If you care about changing lives through music too, there is room for you. Join the excitement by making a meal on Sunday or Wednesday evenings. Play bells, dust off your guitar, or sing and laugh with the choir. You can even click slides, edit video, counsel at Choir Camp, invite a friend, or spread the word on social media. Your help, through the Worship & Arts Ministries, is changing lives.

Caleb Williams, Minister of Worship and Arts
