FAITH & FILM

Royal Oak First is going back to the movies! Our second annual Faith and Film series comes home to Royal Oak. Monday nights in January, we will head over to the Emagine Theatre at 11 Mile and Main at 7:00 pm to see a current movie together. Tickets are only $7 (a $5 discount at this premiere theatre.)

January 8 – The Last Jedi

The Skywalker saga continues as the heroes of The Force Awakens join the galactic legends in an epic adventure that unlocks age-old mysteries of the Force and shocking revelations of the past.

January 15 – The Greatest Showman

Inspired by the imagination of P.T. Barnum, The Greatest Showman is an original musical that celebrates the birth of show business & tells of a visionary who rose from nothing to create a spectacle that became a worldwide sensation.

January 22 – Ferdinand (all kids 12 and under are free!)

The story of a giant bull with a big heart. After being mistaken for a dangerous beast, he is captured and torn from his home. Determined to return to his family, he rallies a misfit team on the ultimate adventure. Set in Spain, Ferdinand proves you can't judge a bull by its cover.

January 29 – The Post

Steven Spielberg directs Meryl Streep and Tom Hanks in The Post, a thrilling drama about the unlikely partnership between The Washington Post's Katharine Graham, the first female publisher of a major American newspaper, and editor Ben Bradlee, who overcome their differences as they risk their careers—and their very freedom—to help bring long-buried truths to light.

PASTY SALE

“If I Knew How Good They Were...”

This quote was heard more than once from those who bought pasties at the last Pasty Sale. Don't be left out. The next Pasty Sale is Saturday, January 6. You can pick them up on Saturday, January 6, between 1:30 pm and 4:00 pm in Fellowship Hall or after both services on Sunday, January 7. The cost is $5 each. You can order one of two mouth-watering kinds: meat or vegetarian. Just fill out the order form below and turn it in to the church office. Another option is to call or text Shirley with your order at 248-765-5617 or by email at shirlnealharris@gmail.com.

The proceeds will be split between youth missions and choir camp. Don't be one of those who said with great regret: “If I knew how good they were...”

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Welcome to Christmas Eve! We are glad you are here! If this is your first Christmas Eve with us, please know you are welcome here! No matter who you are, where you have been or what you have been through, there is a place for you. Tonight, you are a part of our family.

So, relax, enjoy the music, and be inspired by the stories. Know that the Spirit has brought you here to experience all the hope that this season offers. Again, we are glad you are here!

If Royal Oak First is your church home, then let me echo that same welcome to you: We are glad you are here! As you know, this place is special, where the Spirit moves in gentle and powerful ways. As you sit here tonight, take in all the sights and sounds, remembering all times that God has met you here. Find the peace that comes from the familiarity of this evening.

No matter who you are or how many times you have been here, I believe that tonight has a message for all of us. Tonight, we remember that in the coming of Christ, God is not done with us! God is not done with this world yet! Life and love and hope and peace and faith and goodness are all still breaking into our lives and into this world. And tonight we come here to do more than just remember that—we come to live it!

So, from my family to yours, Merry Christmas and may God bless us, each and every one!
