January 22 – Ferdinand (all kids 12 and under are free!)

The story of a giant bull with a big heart. After being mistaken for a dangerous beast, he is captured and torn from his home. Determined to return to his family, he rallies a misfit team on the ultimate adventure. Set in Spain, Ferdinand proves you can't judge a bull by its cover.

January 29 – The Post

Steven Spielberg directs Meryl Streep and Tom Hanks in The Post, a thrilling drama about the unlikely partnership between The Washington Post's Katharine Graham, the first female publisher of a major American newspaper, and editor Ben Bradlee, who overcome their differences as they risk their careers—and their very freedom—to help bring long-buried truths to light.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

May the force be with you!

And also with you!

Growing up in the 70's and 80's Star Wars has always been a part of my life. It is my generation's story. Star Wars gave us many of our on-screen heroes: Luke Skywalker with his determined pursuit of justice; Princess Leia with her defiant courage; Han Solo with his brash, humorous, rebel spirit. When we got together to play we pretended to be them and for a time had their courage, their determination, and their rebel spirit. Movies can give us heroes.

We need heroes. People we can look up to, people who inspire us, people we want to be like, and people we want to emulate. Maybe that is one of the things the community of faith gives us. We call them saints. People we can look up to, be inspired by, and try to emulate. People like Saint Francis and Mother Teresa. People like Martin Luther King Jr. and Rosa Parks.

For me, the real saints, the real heroes, are not the ones on the movie screens. They are not the ones captured in stained glass or encountered in the pages of history. For me, the real heroes, the real saints, are you. The everyday, ordinary people of faith. The people who strive to live their lives with humble generosity and grace. The saints teach Sunday school, sing in the choir, pour coffee, stack chairs, hang banners, and greet visitors. So, on a Sunday when we look at the larger-than-life heroes of Star Wars, please remember that life's real heroes are right here, living among us. People like you and people like me!

Grace and Peace,

A handwritten signature in cursive that reads "Pastor Jeff". Below the signature is a simple line drawing of a smiley face with two dots for eyes and a curved line for a mouth.

PS: Please join us again this Monday at the movies as we watch The Greatest Showman, a movie about possibilities, imagination, and the dignity of all people. It is a fun show and appropriate for all ages. We will be at the Emagine Theatre right here in Royal Oak. The show will start at 7:00 pm and will only be $7.
