FAITH & FILM

Royal Oak First is back at the movies!

Our second annual Faith and Film series comes home to Royal Oak. Monday nights in January, we will head over to the Emagine Theatre at 11 Mile and Main at 7:00 pm to see a current movie together. Tickets are only $7 (a $5 discount at this premiere theatre.)

January 22 – Ferdinand (all kids 12 and under are free!)

The story of a giant bull with a big heart. After being mistaken for a dangerous beast, he is captured and torn from his home. Determined to return to his family, he rallies a misfit team on the ultimate adventure. Set in Spain, Ferdinand proves you can't judge a bull by its cover.

January 29 – The Post

Steven Spielberg directs Meryl Streep and Tom Hanks in The Post, a thrilling drama about the unlikely partnership between The Washington Post's Katharine Graham, the first female publisher of a major American newspaper, and editor Ben Bradlee, who overcome their differences as they risk their careers—and their very freedom—to help bring long-buried truths to light.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Volunteer Opportunity at Redford Brightmoor Initiative Saturday, January 27, 8:00 am

Join us at Redford Brightmoor Initiative in Redford to help prepare and serve lunch during their Free Store on Saturday, January 27, 8:00 am-1:00 pm. If you like to spend time with babies and children, they can also use babysitters while parents shop. We will meet in the church parking lot—carpooling is an option!

This is a wonderful opportunity to do mission as a family! A sign-up sheet is available at the Missions' Table or you may sign up through Sign Up Genius by going to rofum.org/links and clicking the link for the RBI Sign-Up.

For information contact Astrid Harrod at asharrod@gmail.com or Jennie Notarantonio at jnotar@sent.com

Truth and Reconciliation Discernment* Documentary Screening Sunday, January 28, 3:00 pm

Truth and Reconciliation Discernment is part of the ongoing effort to reduce the harmful rhetoric and actions regarding LGBTQ identities. This documentary is the product of a Just Resolution reached following Rev. Ed Rowe's performance of a same-gender wedding ceremony.

Following the screening there will be a discussion with Rev. Ed Rowe and Bishop David Bard.

You can find the link to register at rofum.org/links and join us at the Michigan Area Ministry Center at 1011 Northcrest Rd in Lansing to see this important film.

Fish Dinners are Back!

February 9 & 23, March 9 & 23

4:30 – 7:00 pm

Our famous fish dinners are back! Be sure to join us in February and March for four wonderful nights of food and fellowship. Adult meals start at just $10.

Jumpin' Jams

Saturday, February 10, 10:00 am

This interactive movement and music exploration, led by Jennifer Semivan (Registered Music Therapist) is open to kids in preschool through 5th grade of all abilities! Jump in and try it out! We'll be waiting for you in Fellowship Hall!

Choir Camp Staff Applications

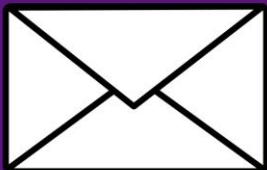

Due: Sunday, February 11

It isn't too early to start thinking about campfires, Olympics, swimming, and all the fun we have! Again this year we will be going to Camp Ohiyesa in Holly. Camp will be the week of July 22-28, 2018, so be sure to mark your calendars!

Camp staff applications will be available in the church office and the Missions' Table. The deadline for submission is Sunday, February 11. We look forward to another wonderful year. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Tripoli at 248-703-8805 or email her at jtropoli@rofum.org.

Letters for Ethan Watkins

Royal Oak First United Methodist Church member, Ethan Watkins, (pictured at the right) is currently stationed at Camp Bondsteel in Kosovo. We have been periodically sending him letters to let him know that he has the support of the entire church behind him. Well, we want to surprise him again. Let's send him another rush of love from the church!

You can send letters to him at

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

There is something I want to get on your calendar now. On February 14, we begin our journey towards Easter (I know, right? Didn't we just put Christmas away?). February 14, we will have an Ash Wednesday service at 7:00 pm and then we will begin the 40-day journey to Easter on April 1. This journey is known as Lent, a season the church has historically set aside to grow closer with Christ and with each other. This time can truly be transformative.

Here at Royal Oak First, we will be using the Lenten season to enter into a time called, "Crafted and Called." Each of us has been uniquely crafted by God. Every one of us has something different to offer God and the community. Too often we have not fully discovered or owned our uniqueness and have left so many of our gifts untapped and unutilized for the greater work of God in this world.

I am inviting you to come and discover the ways God has shaped and created you. Once you begin to discover and claim these gifts, you will discover your unique calling to serve the church and the world. When you begin to live within this unique calling, you will find joy and purpose.

So, here is how you can discover your unique "Crafting and Calling." Tuesdays during Lent (February 20 & 27 and March 6, 13, & 20) we will gather together from 7:00 to 8:15 pm in the Fellowship Hall for a time of personal reflection and discovery. I will begin the evening by presenting the topic of the night and then inviting you to take some time individually and in small groups to explore and share how this message impacts your life. This will truly be a fun, exciting, and meaningful time together. I hope you will consider joining us.

Look for signup sheets next week.

I am looking forward to walking this journey together!

Grace and Peace,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Pastor Joe". Below the signature is a simple smiley face drawn with a circle and two dots for eyes.

PS - Don't forget to join me for Faith and Film this Monday at the Emagine Theatre here in Royal Oak for the 7:00 showing of Ferdinand. This is our family movie and all kids 12 and under are free!!!!
