FAITH & FILM

Royal Oak First is going back to the movies! Our second annual Faith and Film series comes home to Royal Oak. Monday nights in January, we will head over to the Emagine Theatre at 11 Mile and Main at 7:00 pm to see a current movie together. Tickets are only $7 (a $5 discount at this premiere theatre.)

January 8 – The Last Jedi

The Skywalker saga continues as the heroes of The Force Awakens join the galactic legends in an epic adventure that unlocks age-old mysteries of the Force and shocking revelations of the past.

January 15 – The Greatest Showman

Inspired by the imagination of P.T. Barnum, The Greatest Showman is an original musical that celebrates the birth of show business & tells of a visionary who rose from nothing to create a spectacle that became a worldwide sensation.

January 22 – Ferdinand (all kids 12 and under are free!)

The story of a giant bull with a big heart. After being mistaken for a dangerous beast, he is captured and torn from his home. Determined to return to his family, he rallies a misfit team on the ultimate adventure. Set in Spain, Ferdinand proves you can't judge a bull by its cover.

January 29 – The Post

Steven Spielberg directs Meryl Streep and Tom Hanks in The Post, a thrilling drama about the unlikely partnership between The Washington Post's Katharine Graham, the first female publisher of a major American newspaper, and editor Ben Bradlee, who overcome their differences as they risk their careers—and their very freedom—to help bring long-buried truths to light.

SO, YOU HAVEN'T SEEN...

It's sci-fi and it's fantasy, it's a western in space, it's a samurai opera: It's Star Wars, and it isn't for everyone. If you don't want to take the 17 hours to watch all the movies, here's a quick recap to get you ready to see The Last Jedi.

It's been a generation since the first film came out in 1977. We're also on the second generation in the story. Here's the good, the bad, and the ugly:

The Good: The original good guys were Princess Leia, rule-breaker pilot Han Solo, and talented desert-planet nobody Luke Skywalker. Now it's ex-soldier Finn, rule-breaker pilot Poe Dameron, and talented desert-planet nobody Rey. The most famous twist in movie history happened in 1980 when Luke learned who his dad was. In this movie, we've been waiting to find out who Rey's parents are.

The Bad: In this world, baddies come in pairs. Forty years ago, it was shadowy mastermind Emperor Palpatine and his black-masked strongman, Darth Vader. Together, they ran the Empire with white stormtrooper soldiers. This time around, it's shadowy mastermind Supreme Leader Snoke and his black-masked strongman, Kylo Ren. Like Vader before him, Ren is torn between the goodness of his family (his parents are Han and Leia) and the darkness of his anger and loss.

The Ugly: There are lots of distractions along the way, monsters and machines, twisting plot lines, and plenty of war and duels. Underneath, however, there is a story of fear, pride, and power. This inner conflict is expressed through the mystical power called The Force, wielded for millennia by warrior monks known as Jedi. These Jedi were nearly wiped out by Darth Vader, and the last movie ended with Rey finding Luke Skywalker hoping to be trained by him, the last Jedi.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Today is an important day in the life of Royal Oak First. When communities experience a revival of faith, people start to claim their calls into deeper forms of mission and service. Sometimes this results in persons answering the call into pastoral ministry. Today we celebrate that Reverend Myra Moreland has answered this call.

Michigan Area Bishop David Bard has appointed Myra Moreland to serve as an Associate Pastor at Royal Oak First. Myra will be giving primary pastoral leadership to our Saturday Night worship community as well as offering programming leadership in the areas of Children, Families and Youth, Adult Discipleship, and Congregational Care.

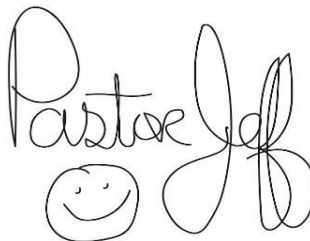

Myra and I have been friends for over 10 years. We met while I was pastoring in Birmingham. Her deep faith and passion for children and seniors are amazing. She has always had a strong commitment to empowering women to live their faith. When I was appointed back to the area, Myra came to visit her old friend. This visit led to an invitation to join us for worship which in turn led Myra to feel like maybe God was calling her to be a part of the movement of the Spirit here in Royal Oak.

One day, while talking over a Greek Salad at Jimi's, I finally just said, "Myra, it's clear that you have the gifts to be a pastor. When are you finally going to answer this call?" Here we are today, a year and a half later, and I am proud to introduce you to our new Associate Pastor, Reverend Myra Moreland.

Please join us in both welcoming and praying for Myra as she begins this new chapter of life. Myra is the first to answer this recent call into pastoral ministry, followed by Bob Prud'homme, Bob Demyanovich and Fred Bowden, all of whom are in the candidacy process. And who knows? I believe that there are more out there that the Holy Spirit is nudging to answer their call as well!

Today is a good day!

Here I am Lord. Send me!
