United Methodist Women Book Discussion Group

Wednesday, March 21, 10:00 am

All are welcome to join us as we explore this meaningful story. Our study book this month is Wonder by R.J. Palacio. It is the story of a home-schooled fifth grader living with a special medical condition often equated with Treacher Collins Syndrome. He is enrolled at a middle school for the start of the next academic year and, as expected, he and his family face many challenges. The story is a wonderful spur for the reader to embrace understanding and kindness. If you have any questions, contact Mary Nahhat at 248-546-6230.

OPPORTUNITIES

Collection for Common Ground Sanctuary

During the Lenten season this year, we will be collecting 120 pillows and pillowcases for the kids and youth who stay at the Common Ground Sanctuary in Royal Oak. We will also be making 120 fleece blankets with knotted fringe in different colors and patterns for them. On March 3 & 4, we will have a congregation-wide effort to tie the knots on the edges of the blankets after all three services in Fellowship Hall. If you would like to help cut the fleece to prep them for the knot tying or if you have a wheel cutter and/or a cutting mat, please contact Jennie Notarantonio at jnotar@sent.com or 248-763-4728.

Do you love to cook?

We are looking for cooks for Sunday Youth Night for Royal Oak Youth (ROY) and Wednesday Evenings for Holy COW. Sunday Night dinner starts at 6:45 pm and we average about 30 youth. Wednesday Night dinner starts at 5:30 pm and we are averaging about 60 children and their families.

South Oakland Shelter Volunteer Opportunities

Sunday, April 1 – Sunday, April 8

South Oakland Shelter (SOS) is a traveling homeless shelter created to serve many of the individuals and families within our community that are experiencing homelessness. The shelter rotates through churches that provide overnight guests with food, fellowship, and a listening ear for one week. We have partnered with our downtown neighbor, St. Paul Lutheran Church, as they open their facility to house up to 30 overnight guests. Volunteers are crucial to ensure a successful week. We have set a goal of 100 volunteers to provide morning & evening drivers; dinner, breakfast and bag lunch cooks; night attendants (men and women); and bedding linen washing.

Please join us as we strengthen our ties to the community and make new friends at St. Paul and SOS. Sign up in Fellowship Hall or contact Laurie O'Donnell at lodonnell@rofum.org or the St. Paul Action Committee at 248-398-9439.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

This week a group from our church staff went on a field trip. We went to watch and learn from a United Methodist church in Kansas City, Missouri. Like Royal Oak First, Good Shepherd in Kansas City is a fast-growing church. It was great to meet their staff and talk about how we can better serve our congregations and our communities.

I couldn't help but think about all the things we do so well as a church here at Royal Oak First. We are talking this week about spiritual gifts and yes, we will look at the gifts that God has given us as individuals. But, I was reminded this week of the gifts we have as a church. The welcoming and inclusive spirit here is a gift. All of you do this so well and I hear it time and time again from new members and from people visiting our church. This is a welcoming place, a place where people feel at home and are able to worship God.

Of course, that church gift is fueled by the individual gifts and talents from each of you. Some of you are just good at saying, "Hello." Some of you are great at giving a hug and some of you know when to just smile and give folks some space (that is a real talent). When we pull all of that together you have one big welcoming body, making Christ's love real.

Join me on Sunday as we dig deeper into the gifts that God has given each of us.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Myra
