EVENTS

Born Perfect: A Safe in my Church event

Sunday, March 4, 3:30 pm

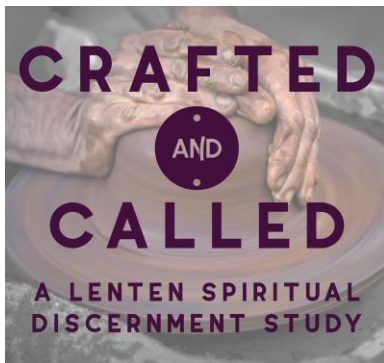

The people of Royal Oak First United Methodist Church know that God loves us and there is nothing we can do about it, so it is time for us to help spread the word. Join us for Born Perfect, a loving response to the practice of Conversion Therapy. The afternoon will include music, poetry, and personal stories that will help us all remember that we were born perfect. An afterglow will follow next door at Pronto Restaurant.

Crafted and Called

Tuesdays during Lent, 7:00 pm

Prayer Service at 6:30 pm

It's not too late to join Crafted and Called! Tuesdays at 7:00 pm, all people are invited to gather at church to explore and learn more about the ways we've each been made unique and where God is calling us. There will be teaching, reflection, and table conversation. To help decompress from the day and re-center, there will be a Taizé service of singing and silent prayer in the sanctuary at 6:30 pm before each session. For more information, contact the church office.

Fish Dinners

March 9 & 23

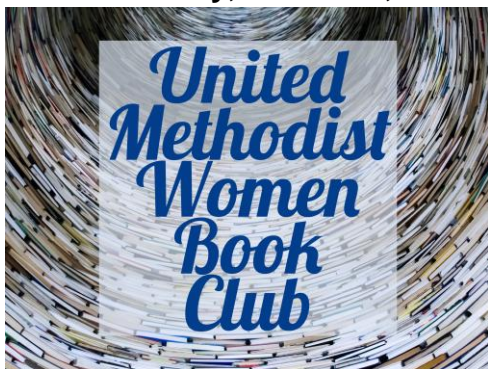

4:30 - 7:00 pm

Be sure to join us on March 9 and 23 for our wonderful nights of food and fellowship. Adult meals start at just $10. Flyers with more information are available in Fellowship Hall.

United Methodist Women Book Discussion Group

Wednesday, March 21, 10:00 am

All are welcome to join us as we explore this meaningful story. Our study book this month is Wonder by R.J. Palacio. It is the story of a home-schooled fifth grader living with a special medical condition often equated with Treacher Collins Syndrome. He is enrolled at a middle school for the start of the next academic year and, as expected, he and his family face many challenges. The story is a wonderful spur for the reader to embrace understanding and kindness. If you have any questions, contact Mary Nahhat at 248-546-6230.

Easter Egg Hunt

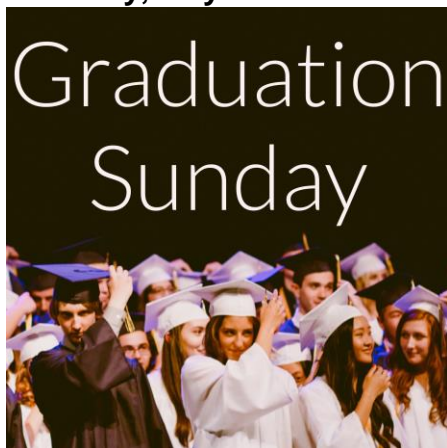

Sunday, April 1, 10:30 am

Join us for our annual Easter Egg Hunt at 10:30 am on Easter Sunday, April 1. The eggs will be hidden in the park on S. West St, between 5th and 6th Streets. In case of inclement weather, the egg hunt will take place in the Fellowship Hall. A collection bin is in Fellowship Hall for donations of candy and plastic eggs. Contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org if you have any questions.

Graduation Sunday

Sunday, May 6

Each year, we honor our high school and college graduates as they begin to embark on new adventures. Be sure to join us for this special Sunday as we celebrate the accomplishments of our young members.

If you or your child are graduating from high school or college, please send a picture of the graduate and their plans for the future to dmoody@rofum.org.

OPPORTUNITIES

Collection for Common Ground Sanctuary

During the Lenten season this year, we will be collecting 120 pillows and pillowcases for the kids and youth who stay at the Common Ground Sanctuary in Royal Oak. We will also be making 120 fleece blankets with knotted fringe in different colors and patterns for them. On March 3 & 4, we will have a congregation-wide effort to tie the knots on the edges of the blankets after all three services in Fellowship Hall. If you would like to help cut the fleece to prep them for the knot tying or if you have a wheel cutter and/or a cutting mat, please contact Jennie Notarantonio at jnotar@sent.com or 248-763-4728.

If you love to cook, then we want you!

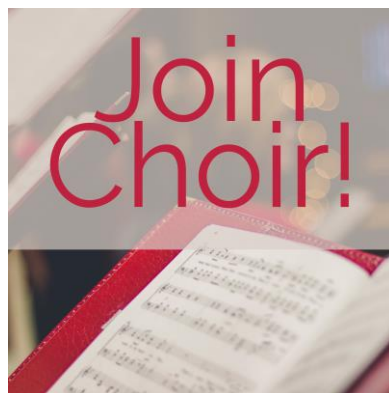

We are looking for cooks for Sunday Youth Night for Royal Oak Youth (ROY) and Wednesday Evenings for Holy COW. Sunday Night dinner starts at 6:45 pm and we average about 30 youth. Wednesday Night dinner starts at 5:30 pm and we are averaging about 60 children and their families.

If you are interested in cooking a meal or working with a team of cooks, please contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org.

Are you ready for Noah's Flood? Join Sanctus Choir!

Sanctus Choir is starting a new special 8-week semester, culminating in the performance of Benjamin Britten's community opera, Noah's Flood, on Sunday, April 28, at the 11:00 am worship service and at a special concert at 4:00 pm. Whether you join for the semester, the year, or life, you can be part of a wonderful ensemble that makes a difference in the life of the church creates lasting friendships. To learn more, contact Caleb Williams at caleb@rofum.org.

South Oakland Shelter Volunteer Opportunities

Sunday, April 1 – Sunday, April 8

South Oakland Shelter (SOS) is a traveling homeless shelter created to serve many of the individuals and families within our community that are experiencing homelessness. The shelter rotates through churches that provide overnight guests with food, fellowship, and a listening ear for one week. We have partnered with our downtown neighbor, St. Paul Lutheran Church, as they open their facility to house up to 30 overnight guests. Volunteers are crucial to ensure a successful week. We have set a goal of 100 volunteers to provide morning & evening drivers; dinner, breakfast and bag lunch cooks; night attendants (men and women); and bedding linen washing.

Please join us as we strengthen our ties to the community and make new friends at St. Paul and SOS. Sign up in Fellowship Hall or contact Laurie O'Donnell at lodonnell@rofum.org or the St. Paul Action Committee at 248-398-9439.

Long-time member is seeking companionship and household help. Could that be you?

Would you like to offer companionship, help with dinner, and some light housework to one of our church elders? We are looking for some household help for a long-time member of Royal Oak First. The position offers $15 an hour. Contact Jennifer Tripoli at jtripoli@rofum.org with any questions.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I have been doing some work lately around our “branding.” It feels weird, maybe even a little crass, to talk about branding our church. It feels as if it is a commodity we sell or a faith product that is in competition with other faith products in the marketplace. Our faith, our church, our community are too important and complex to boil down to a few simple sound bites and a nice new logo. Branding is a way to create a cohesive message to send out into the world about who we are, what we do, and what makes Royal Oak First unique.

The first question this branding work asked was, “Who are your people?” or “What makes a Royal Oak First person a Royal Oak First person?” It was fun to think about what makes us unique.

I have had the pleasure of sitting with dozens of people over the last year who are finding a new spiritual home here at Royal Oak First. They tell me what they experience here is a place where faith is fun, real and significant.

Fun: There is a lot of joy in this place. We love to laugh. We wear fun Christmas sweaters. We have Star Wars Sunday. We don’t take ourselves too seriously.

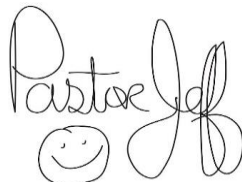

Real: We don’t pretend to have it all together and don’t expect others to have all together either. We are honest about hurts, hang ups and habits. We have doubts and questions and places where we disagree.

Significant: We are a place that really tries to be a blessing to others. We believe what we do here matters and can literally change the world for the better. We believe that belonging to a community literally saves and changes lives so we strive to draw the circle wide to include everybody we can in this movement of love!

I guess if we need to brand ourselves, I’ll start there—Royal Oak First is a place where faith is fun, real, and significant.

I think I’d like to belong to a place like that.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff
