OPPORTUNITIES

United Methodist Women Wants You!

Thursday, June 7, 12:30 pm

Good news, Ladies! We are happy to announce our June salad luncheon is "on" for Thursday, June 7, at 12:30 in Fellowship Hall. The Executive Committee will meet at 10:30.

Please remember to bring your favorite salad to share (able to serve 8).

Our program will be presented by Micki Phelps who is our Conference President. She will be telling us about the Grand Rapids Community House. This is the only National Division UMW mission project in the state of Michigan and our pledges help support it. So come and learn more about our United Methodist Women in action.

We invite all women of all ages (no need to be a member of Royal Oak First). So please come join us and be a part of our UMW fellowship of caring loving women involved in mission for Christ.

LETTER FROM THE PREACHER

Dear Friends,

In our modern world we often say that we need support systems but, in our church and families, we have built-in support systems. In our scripture today, the paralyzed man has a group of friends that are his built-in support system. I've come to believe that it is harder to accept the love and support you need than to offer it to others; but don't forget to do both parts of this important equation. I hope that after today you feel like you have your own crew supporting you.

George Marck
