OPPORTUNITIES

New Name Tags

What's the one most hospitable thing that you can do? No, it's not greeting people at the front door, or helping at coffee hour. It's wearing your nametag. With that one simple act, you're helping everyone greet you and you're helping every person that you greet. Our name tag rack in the Narthex is full of new name tags. If you don't have a name tag, just sign the sheet on the welcome table and we'll make sure you get one! If your new name tag has an error, drop it in the basket at the welcome table and add your name to the sign up sheet.

The Way Forward Informational Meeting and Book Study

Wednesday, September 26, 6:30 pm

This February, our representatives will gather to discuss and to decide our denomination's stance on performing same gender marriages and ordaining LGBTQ persons to be our pastors.

In order to prepare us for the changes that might be coming, Reverend Dr. Christina Wright will host in informational meeting on Wednesday, September 16, at 6:30 pm. To help us continue the important conversations begun at that meeting, Pastor Jeff will offer a three-week follow up, looking at the book Living Faithfully, Human Sexuality and The United Methodist Church beginning Wednesday, October 3, at 6:30 pm.

Date Changed! Thursday Worship

Thursday, September 27, 10:00 am

Everybody has a story, and each person's story matters. Bring your story with you to a half-hour service of prayer, sharing, and communion we call As We Gather. Worship with Pastor Jeff and Deacon Caleb and then join them for a meal at our daily lunch ministry at 10:30 am. As with all our services, you are welcome to come as you are, whether you woke up on the streets or in starched sheets. Bring a friend and risk being part of this barrier-breaking community. Email Caleb Williams at caleb@rofum.org with any questions.

The first book of the season is Barking to the Choir: The Power of Radical Kinship by Gregory Boyle. Barking to the Choir offers a snapshot into the challenges and joys of life on the margins. The stories of the people Boyle works with uplift the soul and reveal how bright life can be when filled with unconditional love and kindness. If you have any questions, contact the church office at office@rofum.org or 248-541-4100.

Jumpin' Jams

Gift Bag Collection for United Methodist Women

Every winter, our United Methodist Women's group creates and collects hundreds of hats, scarves, gloves, and more for the Developmentally Disabled Adults program at Cass Community Social Services. This year, we would like to make those gifts a bit more special by wrapping them in gift bags. Our goal is to collect 200 plain, medium-sized gift bags before the holiday season. Place any donations in the marked bin in the elevator lobby on the Lower Level.

Welcome to the Party!

BIBLE FRIENDS

Touch the life of a child. Communicate what is important to you.

October 14, 11:00 am Worship Service

We are looking for Bible Friends to help our class of third graders discover their own Bibles. The opportunity includes:

- Participating in the presentation of Bibles to third graders on October 14
- Sharing your favorite Bible passages with your student
- Keeping in contact with your youth
- Being a visible role model in any way you can

The annual gesture of a Bible Friend presenting a Bible to a third grade student does more than provide a Bible to a child. You pass on a bit of your faith and values. You make a memorable statement that the Bible is important and children are important.

If you are interested in becoming a Bible Friend, complete this form and return it to the office. If you have any questions, please contact Danielle Moody at 248-541-4100 or dmoody@rofum.org.

You do not need to purchase a Bible to be a Bible Friend and do not need to be a Bible Friend to purchase a Bible.

LETTER FROM THE PREACHER

Dear Friends,

It is my honor and privilege to welcome my friend and colleague, Reverend Dr. Christina Wright to our Sunday pulpit this weekend. Reverend Wright is an ordained Deacon in the United Methodist Church and is currently the interim manager and chaplain for the Department of Spiritual Care at the University of Michigan Health System. A native of Marshall, Michigan and a graduate of Northwestern University and Harvard Divinity School, Christina has dedicated her ministry to helping people, institutions and communities organize to experience Christ's mercy and justice.

For most of her adult life, Christina has been working for healing and wholeness within the United Methodist Church. As a self-proclaimed “church nerd,” Christina has been attending our denomination’s General Conference for years, where every four years elected delegates from around the world come together to make the important decisions about the life and direction of the church. Christina understands the inner working of the United Methodist Church. She knows our polity, our procedures and has a good sense of the politics facing our church today.

That knowledge and passion is, in part, why we have asked her to bring us the message today, and why we asked her to lead our workshop on The Way Forward this Wednesday at 6:30. The United Methodist Church has come to an important point of decision-making around performing marriages for same-gender-loving couples and ordaining LGBTQ persons as pastors in our churches. In February, a special General Conference will be held in St. Louis where important decisions will be made. On Wednesday, Christina will help us better understand the issues, some of the proposed changes, and how those decisions might impact our local ministry. There will be time for discussion and chances to ask questions.

So, we welcome and thank Reverend Wright for being with us this Sunday, and we are grateful for her willingness to share her experience and knowledge with us later this week.

Welcome, Christina!

We are glad you are here!

Grace and Peace,
