OPPORTUNITIES

It's Real

We are living in a time where it is hard to know what is real. When we can't trust the "realness" of information, institutions, and even people, sometimes we're left with an emptiness of spirit and purpose. For the last couple of years our mantra at Royal Oak First has been, "Making Christ's Love Real." Not empty religious dogma, but real love. Not fake public smiles, but real deep friendships. Not patting our own backs, but making a real difference. Starting this week, come experience four weeks of powerful worship, not just saying what we like to hear, but listening for where God might be calling us.

It's Pastor Appreciation Month

Let us show the Pastors our love by writing a heartfelt note of how God used them to make a difference in your life. These notes will be used to remind them that they are making a difference. Please pick up a card at the welcome table and return it to the basket once it is complete. If you have any questions, contact Jennifer Tripoli at jtripoli@rofum.org.

Welcome to the Party!

Sunday, October 21, 2:00 pm

You are invited to a gathering at the pastor's house. Get to know some other people, learn more about the church, and ask any questions you might have about Royal Oak First. Contact George Marck at gmarck@rofum.org if you would like to pre-register or if you have any questions. If you haven't pre-registered yet, just show up!

Big Boy Night for Music Guild

Tuesday, October 23, 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm

Come to the Big Boy at 30460 John R Rd. in Madison Heights and enjoy dinner with your church family and 15% of your dinner tab (with a coupon) goes to the Royal Oak First United Methodist Music Guild to support Choir Camp. There are drawings for wonderful prizes and you get to eat where (almost) everybody knows your name! Contact Shirley Harris at sharris@rofum.org with any questions. Coupons are available at the Welcome Table.

Jumpin' Jams

Saturday, October 27, 10:00 am

This interactive movement and music exploration, led by Jennifer Semivan (Registered Music Therapist), is open to kids in preschool through 5th grade of all abilities! Jump in and try it out! We'll be waiting for you in Fellowship Hall! If you have any questions, contact Jennifer Semivan at jsemivan@rofum.org.

Spooktacular is Back!

Sunday, October 28, 1:00 pm

Every year, the City of Royal Oak hosts the annual Spooktacular, a Halloween festival with games, trick-or-treating, and entertainment for the families of our community. Royal Oak First is one of the hosts for this community event with candy and games. We will be collecting candy donations in the elevator lobby on the lower level. Contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org if you have any questions.

United Methodist Women Pillowcase Workshop

Thursday, November 1, 1:00 pm-3:00 pm

Want to help brighten the life of a child? Come to the United Methodist Women program on Thursday, November 1, 1:00 pm-3:00 pm, in the Fellowship Hall. We will be making pillowcases for the children at Cass Community Social Services and the children at the Redford Brightmoor Initiative. Many of these children have no pillowcases. These pillowcases will be given to the children at Christmas. Sewing skills are not needed to help with this mission project. Everyone is invited! If you have any questions, contact Kathy Riggs at 248-390-4345.

Volunteer Opportunity at Redford Brightmoor Initiative

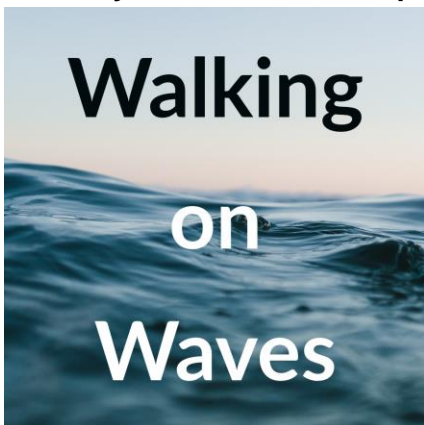

Saturday, November 3, 9:00 am – 1:00 pm

Join us at Redford Brightmoor Initiative in Redford to help prepare and serve lunch during their Free Store on Saturday November 3, 9:00 am-1:00 pm. If you like to spend time with babies and children, you can sign up to be a babysitter to watch the children while parents shop. A sign-up sheet will be available at the Welcome Table. For more information, contact Astrid Harrod at 248-635-6357 or RBI@rofum.org.

Walking on Waves: a Royal Oak First Concert

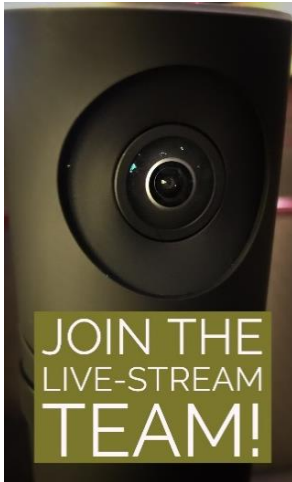

Sunday, November 4, 5:00 pm

Water has the power to move us, from mighty storms to quiet creeks. Mark your calendars for an hour of inspiring water music by Royal Oak First music ministries. We'll journey from the despair of drought and desert mirages, through tears and dreams of distant shores, to the joy of heavenly rivers and unquenchable love! A freewill offering will be taken, so bring a friend to support youth and adult singers and instrumentalists. Contact our Minister of Worship & Arts, Caleb Williams, at caleb@rofum.org for more info.

College Care Packages

Our youth will be putting together care packages to send to our college students who are away at school. Please send your student's name and address to Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org. If you would like to make a donation for the care packages, please contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org.

Worship Service Live-Stream Team

Every Sunday, our worship service live-stream allows our members who have transportation issues, are travelling, are sick, or maybe just had trouble getting moving in the morning to attend worship from wherever they are. We are creating a team of people to help make the live-stream happen. We will provide camera training and opportunities to serve as often as you want. If you are comfortable with technology and interested in this fun new team, contact Sam Garrett, at sgarrett@rofum.org.

THERE'S A WIDENESS IN YOUR MERCY

This hymn was inspired by this week's scripture and includes text adapted from an 1854 hymn by Frederick W. Faber.

Work overtime for nothing left,
Give everything I've got.
You step into my emptiness
And ask for one more shot.

How could you love someone like me?
Do you know what I've done?
You start to smile, and then you say,
"We've only just begun"

There's a wideness in your mercy,
which is wider than the sea.
There's a kindness in your justice,
which is more than liberty.
There's a love within your people,
Which is more than family.
There's a wideness in your mercy,
Which is wide enough for me.

My shameful pride, the pain I hide,
The doubt that clouds my mind.
I look inside, and open wide,
and leave it all behind.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

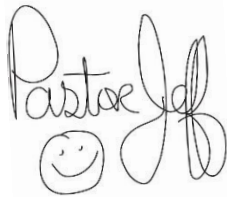

Dear Friends,

In our first year together, I did a lot of listening. I was listening to the ways you described what made this place and the movement here so special. What I heard you say over and over was that you experienced God's love at Royal Oak First. What was really interesting, though, was that when you spoke of God's love it was not in some theoretical, religious way, but instead the love you experienced here was tangible and very personal. So, we started to claim that sense as our mantra, "Making Christ's Love Real!"

I met Antone Tuesday night. It was time for me to go home. It was time for dinner so I was headed out the door and there, peeking in, was Antone. It was time for dinner and he knew exactly where to come. He knew that even though we had served lunch six hours earlier that if you are hungry you come to the Methodist Church and somebody will find you something to eat. Sure enough, there in the refrigerator were sandwiches ready and waiting. Tangible. Personal. "Christ's love made real."

In a couple of weeks I'll be asking you to make an investment in the work God is doing in this place. Never doubt that your generosity is making a real a difference—one sandwich, one life at a time!

Grace and Peace,
