Order forms will be available following worship services, with shirts to be available by December 9. Contact Christine Ryckman at shirts@rofum.org or 248-515-6924 if you have any questions or you would like to get your order started.

New Parking Lot Tags

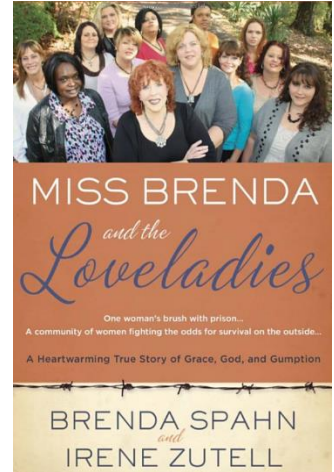

We are growing! With new programming and increased involvement, we are running into some parking issues during our weekday and weekend activities. In an effort to manage the church parking lot, we would like to issue a parking hangtag to those that regularly park in the lot. The tag will hang from a vehicle's rear view mirror and can easily be moved to another vehicle. If additional hangtags are desired, a $1 donation would be appreciated. Please stop by Fellowship Hall to acquire your tag. Questions? Please contact Charlene Kondrat, Trustee Chairperson at trustees@rofum.org.

Date correction! United Methodist Women Book Club: Miss Brenda and the Loveladies

Wednesday, November 28, 10:00 am

Following a life-altering brush with the law that threatened to send her to prison, Brenda Spahn made a promise to God. "With a heart to help and a will that couldn't be crushed, Brenda fought the system and overcame tremendous obstacles to take ex-cons into her own home and help them navigate the alien world of life on the outside." Brenda teamed up with Irene Zutell, a well-known author of woman's stories to tell the story of her foundation, the Lovelady Center, the largest transitional non-profit center of its kind in the country. All are welcome!

Family Book Club & Cookie Decoration

Sunday, December 2, 12:00 pm

Enjoy reading Christmas Stories by Laura Ingalls Wilder with your family and then join us on December 2, following the 11:00 am worship service to discuss the book and decorate Christmas cookies. Please contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org to sign up and receive a copy of the book.

Christmas Store Collections

Every year, Cass Community Social Services and Redford-Brightmoor Initiative both provide a free Christmas Store where families in Detroit can "shop" for gifts for their family for Christmas. We are collecting toys and gifts for the Cass Christmas Store, and children's winter coats and boots for the RBI Christmas Store.

Please avoid puzzles, family games, anything with batteries, and Play-Doh. Items should be new and unwrapped. The children's winter coats and boots for the RBI Christmas store can be any size from infant to 18-20, and should be new and unwrapped.

Please bring your donations to the Narthex, and place them on the wooden Christmas tree or in the collection boxes provided. If you have any questions, contact Missions chair, Jennie Notarantonio, at missions@rofum.org.

What is Your Favorite Holiday Recipe?

Do you have a special baked goodie that you make for Christmas? Maybe it's a special family recipe, or maybe you found it on the internet and want to try it out. We are looking for people to bring their favorite holiday desserts for coffee hour during Advent (the month of December). If you have a recipe you have always wanted to share, consider signing up now for a Sunday in December by emailing George Marck at gmarck@rofum.org. If you are willing to share your recipe, we would be happy to print copies for you to share.

Collections for our Lunch Program

It's starting to get very cold outside, and can be dangerous for those living on the streets. Our Sack Lunch Program is in need of donations of winter items for our guests. We could use gloves, winter hats, socks, blankets, and sleeping bags. Additionally, we are always collecting personal care items like soap, razors, deodorant, washcloths, and feminine hygiene products. Please bring your donations to Fellowship Hall with the label "Sack Lunch". Contact Jennie Notarantonio at missions@rofum.org if you have any questions.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

A little girl wondered what a saint might be. One day her mother took her to a great cathedral to see the gorgeous stained-glass windows with scenes from the Bible. When she saw the beauty of it all she cried out loud, “Now I know what saints are. They are people who let the light shine through!”

We remember the saints today. The ones who let the light shine through. It is the weekend before Thanksgiving and we can think of no better week than to use our time of worship to say thank you to all those saints that have left us this past year and have entered into their eternal rest. We remember that we all stand on the shoulders of the saints that have gone before us. These saints paved the way. They kept the faith. They made sacrifices that make it possible for us to be here today. They let the light shine through.

And so today we pause to simply say, “Thank You.”

Who are the saints in your life that you want to remember today?

A parent, grandparent, aunt or uncle?

A spouse, a child, a sibling?

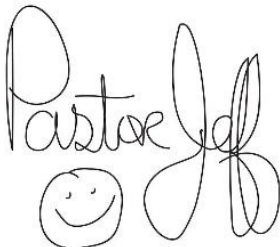

A coach, a teacher, an elder from church?

A neighbor, a friend?

Each of us have people that are saints—people whose memories we still carry in our hearts. Today we simply pause to say thank you for the gift God gave us in these saints. We say thank you for shining the light!

For all the saints!

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff
