OPPORTUNITIES

Keith J. Leenhouts Scholarship

The Keith J. Leenhouts Scholarship Committee is very pleased to award scholarships to students who have had exemplary academic achievements. They are also making important contributions in their church and the community.

We congratulate Eleanor M. Gilbert of Birmingham, Natalie M. Haight of Troy, Maya Jane Longe of Royal Oak, Hanna J. Tripoli of Troy, Franklin Wahl of Berkley, and Eli Yarmy of Royal Oak and wish them much success in all of their future endeavors.

Refueling Our Faith Using Motors

Monday, May 6, 6:00 pm

Calling all car enthusiasts! Enjoy food, stories, and discussions about everything from how to mix carburetion to salvation. Use your love for cars to plan fun things and do work for others. If you have any questions, contact Brian Baker at cars@rofum.org.

Pillowcase Workshop

Wednesday, May 15, 7:00 pm

A pillowcase may not seem like much, but to kids who don't have anything, it can be a lot. Our United Methodist Women and Knowledge Circle invite you to help make pillowcases for Cass Community Social Services and the Redford Brightmoor Initiative. You don't have to know how to sew to be able to help. If you have a sewing machine or serger, bring it along. Cotton fabric donations can be placed in the marked drawer in the Lower Level Elevator Lobby. If you have any questions, contact Kathy Riggs at 248-390-4345.

Saturday Supper Club Spring Fling

Saturday, May 18, 5:15 pm

Join us for dinner with friends and a performance by Doe (House Band members Erica Plesco and Jason Sherman). We will provide the main dish, so you can show off your cooking skills (or your buying skills) and bring your favorite side dish or dessert. If you have any questions, contact Pastor Myra Moreland at mmoreland@rofum.org.

Graduation Sunday Sunday, May 19

Each year, we honor our high school and college graduates as they embark on new adventures. Be sure to join us for this special Sunday as we celebrate the accomplishments of our young members.

If you or your child are graduating from high school or college, please send a picture of the graduate and their plans for the future to dmoody@rofum.org.

Vacation Bible School: To Mars and Beyond

June 24 – 27, 5:30 pm – 8:00 pm

Save the date! This year, Vacation Bible School is taking our kids To Mars and Beyond as they learn faith, boldness, kindness, thankfulness, and hope. For more information, go to www.rofum.org/vbs. If you have any questions, contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I spent last week in Wisconsin visiting my dad. We didn't do anything fancy. We played cribbage (he beat me 6 games to 4 and took me for 42 cents.) We went to his church and stocked the shelves of their food pantry. We saw a couple of movies (Breakthrough, a good film about faith and prayer; and Dumbo, a live-action remake of the Disney classic). We watched the Brewers. We went out for dinner at the local pub where they still have the best French Dip in the world. And we drove around our hometown, taking a good trip down memory lane. It wasn't anything fancy, but it sure was nice.

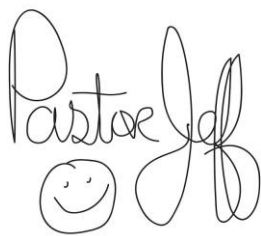

When I had called my dad about a month ago and asked if I could come home for a visit, he said, "Sure... but I am not dying!" To which I said, "Exactly! That's why I want to come."

Sometimes we convince ourselves that something needs to be big or fancy or exciting in order to capture our imagination or command our time. It is too easy in the community of faith to think that God is only present in the big things, or that God is most active in emergencies. My trip back home reminded me of God's gentle presence in the small, unremarkable, mundane moments of our lives.

Our lives are busy. They are full. There are lots of things vying for our attention. It is easy to miss the beauty found in the ordinary moments that unfold all around us.

So do me a favor this week. Play some cribbage (or whatever game you enjoy). Turn on the ballgame. Go see a movie. Eat a really good sandwich. And know that God is in those moments with you.

Grace and Peace,
