Royal Oak Farmers' Market

Diversity and Inclusion Committee Meeting

Wednesday, June 19, 7:00 pm

Royal Oak First

The Diversity and Inclusion Committee will work to make Royal Oak First as open and safe as we can be for all people. Come meet us on Wednesday, June 19, to join the team. If you would like more information about the committee, contact the team at diversity@rofum.org.

Backyard Blast

Wednesday, June 19, 6:00 – 8:00 pm

Students entering 6th Grade through students leaving 12th Grade are invited to join us for swimming and snacks at Carolyn Gabler's home at 111 Lakeside Dr in Royal Oak. Bring a swim suit, a towel, a dish to share, and a friend! If you have any questions, contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org.

Camp Registration

Due Wednesday, June 19

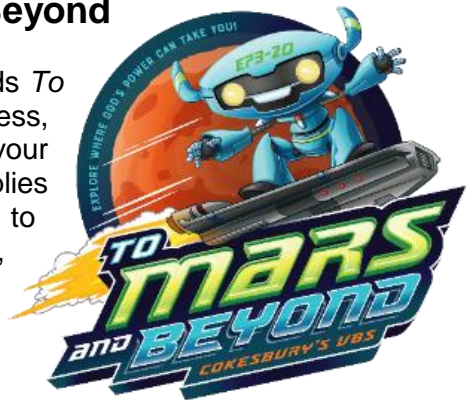

Choir Camp is a wonderful week of fellowship, learning, and spiritual growth for our children and youth. This is often the highlight of the year for the children who attend. Registration packets were mailed to families and extra packets will be available in the Church Office and at the Connect Here Desk. If you have any questions, contact Jennifer Tripoli at jtripoli@rofum.org

Vacation Bible School: To Mars and Beyond

June 24 – 27, 5:30 pm – 8:00 pm

This year, Vacation Bible School is taking our kids To Mars and Beyond as they learn faith, boldness, kindness, thankfulness, and hope. Register your children, sign up to volunteer, or donate supplies online. For more information, go to www.rofum.org/vbs. If you have any questions, contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org.

Produce Collection for Redford Brightmoor Initiative

Our friends at the RBI Free Store provide fresh produce to their shoppers every Saturday and we are going to help. You can sign up to bring two bags of produce to Royal Oak First or transport the donations to RBI on the second Saturday of every month. Sign up online at rofum.org/links or contact Astrid Harrod at rbi@rofum.org if you have any questions.

Join the Fellowship Hour Team

We are working hard to be the most hospitable church in Royal Oak. One of the ways we do that is with a great Fellowship Hour following Sunday worship. You can help make it even better by making the coffee or helping serve the snacks. A good Fellowship Hour is part of a good first impression for those who are visiting and it is part of a good worship experience for our church family. If you are interested in joining the team, contact George Marck at gmarck@rofum.org.

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Let me answer a few of your questions about today's Pentecost celebration.

So what is this Pentecost thing?

The term Pentecost comes from the Greek word for "fiftieth" (50th). It refers to the festival celebrated on the fiftieth day after Passover, also known as the "Feast of Weeks."

For the early church, Pentecost was the second most important day of the Christian year after Easter. Pentecost celebrates the giving of the Holy Spirit to the first disciples. It signifies the birth of the church.

What do the different symbols of Pentecost mean?

Wind: Represents God's first breath of love (Hebrew: Ruah) into all of creation. A "driving wind" surrounded the apostles on that first Pentecost to enliven them in their faith. The breath of the Holy Spirit lives in each and every one of us.

Fire: Represents the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit filled the early church with enthusiasm, replacing their fear with the courage to go out and share God's love and justice with the world.

Red: We dress both ourselves and the sanctuary in red on Pentecost to represent the dynamic nature of the Holy Spirit and the passion for life of those who are open to the Spirit.

Dove: This symbol of peace represents the Holy Spirit that descended "like a dove" and rested upon Jesus when he was baptized.

Why do we still celebrate Pentecost?

Pentecost gives us the chance to ask ourselves, "What are we on fire about?" Here at Royal Oak First, we are on fire about making the love of Christ real. We are on fire about feeding the hungry. We are passionate about making room for children and youth. We are committed to caring for our seniors. We are fired up to make a real difference in the world.

At Royal Oak First, Pentecost is not a day, it is a way of living in the world! We love all the ways that the Holy Spirit is at work among us.

Welcome! We are glad you are you!

Pastor Jeff
