Saturday Supper Club

Saturday, October 19, 5:00 pm

Join us for dinner with friends and a performance by The Nahhat Family Singers. We will provide the main dish, so you can show off your cooking skills (or your buying skills) and bring your favorite side dish or dessert. If you have any questions, contact Pastor Myra Moreland at mmoreland@rofum.org.

Bible Buddies

Sunday, October 20, 11:00 am worship service

The annual gesture of a Bible Buddy presenting a Bible to a third-grade student does more than provide a Bible to a child. Bible Buddies pass on a bit of their faith and values. If you are interested in becoming a Bible Buddy or purchasing a Bible for a child, contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org or sign up at the Connect Here Desk.

Women's Retreat: Fall into Friendships

Friday, November 1 – Sunday, November 3

Join us for a weekend of friendship and connecting with other women. Campfires, activities, small groups, and book discussions await us at Lake Huron Retreat Center.

The cost is $150 for the full weekend or you can join us on Saturday for $50. If the price is restrictive for you, let us know. We will not allow that to get between you and a weekend of friendship.

Register online at rofum.org/womensretreat or at the Connect Here Desk.

If you have any questions, contact Danielle Moody at dmoody@rofum.org.

ABOUT THE BISHOP

Bishop David Alan Bard was elected to the episcopacy in 2016 and assigned to the Michigan Area of The United Methodist Church, where he currently serves as the resident bishop. Prior to his election, Bishop Bard was a member of the Minnesota Conference where he served for over thirty years as a pastor and District Superintendent. His final appointment in Minnesota was as pastor of First United Methodist Church in Duluth, the community in which he grew up. During his ministry, Bishop Bard served on a number of conference and denomination-wide committees and agencies. He was elected to represent Minnesota at five General and Jurisdictional Conferences (2000, 2004, 2008, 2012, and 2016). He is the only member of the Minnesota Conference to be elected to the episcopacy since the formation of The United Methodist Church in 1968. He currently serves as president of the NCJ College of Bishops.

Bishop Bard is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, Duluth (B.A. cum laude, philosophy and psychology), United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities (M.Div.), and has a Ph.D. in Religious Studies, with a focus on Christian Ethics, from Southern Methodist University (Dallas, TX). He has taught courses as an adjunct faculty member at the College of St. Scholastica in Duluth and United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities. He has also served on a number of ecumenical and community boards and agencies including the Minnesota Council of Churches, Board of Directors of Second Harvest Northern Lakes Food Bank, Board of Directors of Life House, an outreach program for homeless youth, and the St. Louis County Heading Home Governance Board.

Bishop Bard married his wife Julie, also from Duluth, in 1982. Julie is a long-time educator currently teaching first grade in the Waverly School District. Bishop Bard and Julie have three children: David L. who works in the public sector and is married to Cristina, lives in St. Paul, MN; Elizabeth, an OB/GYN physician in Minneapolis who is married to Michael; and Sarah who lives in Andover, MN is a physical therapist and married to Aaron.

In his first sermon as bishop, Bishop Bard said that he wanted his time here in Michigan to be marked by joy, wisdom, love, and hope. He is delighted to be working with Michigan United Methodists to make disciples of Jesus Christ so that the world may be transformed. When he is not working, Bishop Bard enjoys walking, reading, movies, music, and just spending time with family.
