Modern Love Survey

Responses due Sunday, February 2

Our February worship series will be Modern Love, inspired by the popular podcast of the same name. To help us with this series, we have created a survey to know what our members think about love and relationships. You can find the survey at rofum.org/modernlove or you can pick up a paper copy at the Connect Here Desk and return it to the church office. Submit your anonymous responses by Sunday, February 2. If you have any questions, contact Sam Garrett at sgarrett@rofum.org.

Men's Chorus

Performs Sunday, February 16, 11:00 am

A special Men's Chorus will perform on Sunday, February 16, at the 11:00 am worship service. Come and lift your voice in praise. Rehearsals will be at 12:30 pm on Sunday, January 26, and February 2 and 9. If you have any questions, contact Neal Harris at 248-765-5618.

STAFF TRANSITIONS

As we move into this time of transition in our worship and arts program, it will truly be a team effort.

Debi Szeliga – Interim Director of Worship and Music

Debi's hours will expand to full time during this interim and she will continue to provide worship coordination, planning, recruiting and organizing, incredible accompanist work and will assist in conducting the search process for new staff.

Chris Hall – Interim Conductor of Sanctus Choir

We are excited to welcome Chris Hall back to Royal Oak First. Chris served as the choir director at Royal Oak First in the 80s and early 90s. Chris will help provide direction for the choir through February 9, giving us time to search for a longer term interim.

Erica Plesco – Interim Leader of the House Band

Erica has been a familiar face in our House Band for the past three years. Along with help from Jennifer Semivan, Mike McNutt, and Laci Basel, Erica will select music and hold rehearsals.

Neal Harris & Faye Bond – Interim Conductors of Angelus Senior High Choir

We are thrilled that Neal and Faye will be working together with our high school choir. Neal and Faye are long-time leaders in our congregation and gifted musicians. Neal and Faye are committed to helping our people grow in their faith and in their love of music and arts.

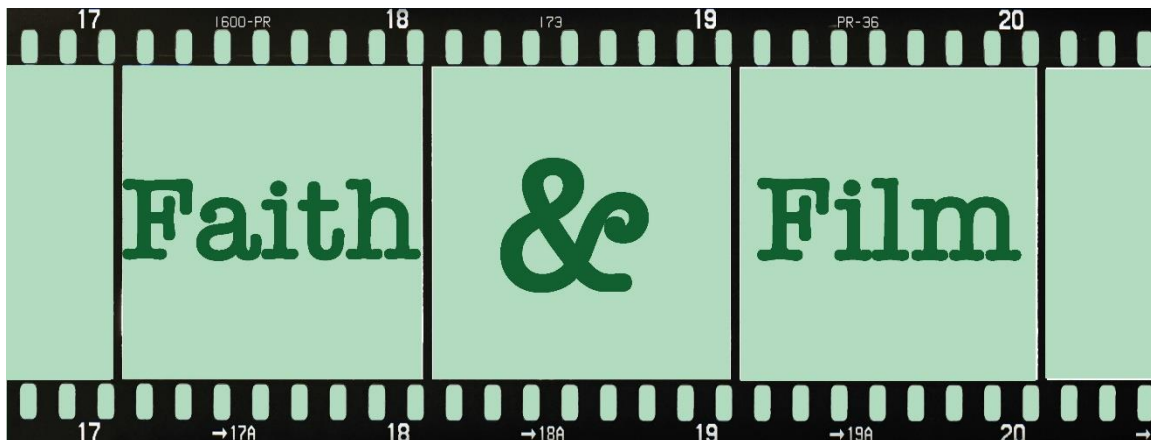

Pastor George Marck – Pastor of As We Gather and New Member Care Coordinator

George and his family have been long-time members of Royal Oak First and George has been a part of our staff team for over three years now. In 2020, Pastor George's role will be focused on helping those who are new to our movement feel known, needed, and cared for. Additionally, George will deepen his pastoral care work with our lunch program guests.

We give thanks to God for truly blessing us with so many great people who will lead us through this time of transition. Please pray for all these folks as they begin their season of service and leadership.

Royal Oak First is going back to the movies! Monday nights in January, we will head to the theater to see a current movie together. Tickets are only $7! If you have any questions, contact the church office at 248-541-4100 or office@rofum.org.

January 20 – Little Women at MJR at Maple and Livernois

In the years after the Civil War, Jo March reflects back and forth on her life, telling the beloved story of the March sisters - four young women each determined to live life on their own terms.

January 27 – Just Mercy at MJR at Maple and Livernois

After graduating from Harvard, Bryan Stevenson heads to Alabama to defend those wrongly condemned or those not afforded proper representation. In the years that follow, Stevenson encounters racism and legal and political maneuverings as he tirelessly fights for McMillian's life.

Dinner and a Movie

January 20 at The Rock on Third at 112 E 3rd St in Royal Oak

January 27 at Detroit Taco Company at 304 N Main St in Royal Oak

Stop by Rock on Third or Detroit Taco Company before heading out to our Faith and Film movie night and 20% of your total bill will be donated to the church to help our kids go to Choir Camp! All you have to do is mention the church when placing your order.

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I met this past weekend with our newly elected Compass Team. This is the group of dedicated leaders who have agreed to serve this congregation as a vision casting and governance team. Each of them brings spiritual maturity, a servant's heart and experience in giving leadership to the church.

At our first organizing retreat, this team reaffirmed two very important commitments for Royal Oak First and our movement. First, we continue to stand by our vision of "Making Christ's Love Real!" We want people's faith experience to be something that matters, and that makes sense in their day-to-day living. For us, faith is more than ideas, doctrines, and beliefs - it is a way of living with each other and the world around us.

The second was our commitment to saying, "All are Welcome—and All Means All!" In a world that seeks to divide us in every which way, we seek to hold a community that finds its unity in Christ. We will continue to build a movement where people of different ages, races, economic backgrounds, sexual orientations, gender identities, and political persuasions can come together in love. This is the sign and symbol the world needs. It is not always easy. It sure can be messy. And yet, it is at the very heart of the ministry of Christ.

Please keep the members of this team, Brian LaRose, Ann Brown, Tim Ryckman, Carrie Beerer, Robin Richardson, Jeff Vickers, Jay Dunstan, Jennifer Tripoli, and myself in your prayers. The work ahead of us exciting.

We are glad you are here!

Grace and Peace,

PS - Don't forget that this week's Faith & Film movie is Little Women and it has moved to a new location. Please join us at the MJR in Troy, right on the corner of Livernois and Maple. Parking is ample and free and the cost is only $7.
