Endowment Fund

Royal Oak First is a thriving and growing Christ-centered community. Having both a long and short-term financial strategy in place to support continued growth is essential in any healthy church.

Toward that end, a team of church members has been established with responsibility to address our Endowment Fund. If you don't know yet about the Endowment Fund, it is essentially the church's long-term savings account that made possible the building renovation that we enjoy today. Over the next couple of months, we will share information on the fund's purpose, how you can contribute (if you choose to do so), how it is managed, and a long-term vision to further develop the fund and its uses.

If you have any questions or are considering legacy gifts, please contact John Boyse, Endowment Fund Team Leader, at 248-224-6006.

Wondering what to do with all those plastic grocery bags?

Plastic grocery bags. They are difficult to recycle, but throwing them out is bad for the environment, so those bags tend to accumulate in drawers or an ironic “bag-of-bags” until we run out of room and get rid of them. Instead of throwing them away, you can drop them off in the church kitchen. In addition to being one of the most common requests from the guests of our lunch program, we use plastic grocery bags to make sleeping mats for people experiencing homelessness.

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

This week as part of the modern love series, we are thinking about friendship. Each of us can identify with feelings of friendship and the treasuring of our friends. By all means, treasure those friendships because they are part of God's gifts to you.

Jesus tells us in the scripture today that he will be our friend and commands us to love one another. Jesus gives us the 'template' or way to follow as a way to be a friend to others. The love of God for us is unwavering, always on target, and complete in a way that can allow us to be the best self we can ever hope to be.

But, it's the third part of friendship that I've really been pondering this week. God calls us to be friends to others and not just to those we might initially gravitate toward. God calls us to be friends to people in need, to those who might need us more than we need them. And it's by this that God builds up his kingdom in the world. So, live the credo, 'You've Got a Friend in Me' this week because, by it, God is using you to change the world. And isn't that what we're all about – changing the world?

George Marck
