LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

“Silence is God's first language.”

-St. John of the Cross

“It was very early in the morning and still dark. Jesus got up and left the house. He went to a place where he could be alone. There he prayed.”

-Mark 1:35

*“Hello darkness, my old friend
I've come to talk with you again
Because a vision softly creeping
Left its seeds while I was sleeping
And the vision that was planted in my brain
Still remains
Within the sound of silence.”*

-Simon and Garfunkel

Dear Friends,

I am just old enough to remember this thing called “boredom.”

The advent of the digital age has removed boredom from much of our modern lives. Because of our smartphones, we can now carry in our pockets the ability to stay connected, informed and entertained at all times. Gone are the days of having to wait in line at the coffee shop, five people in front of us, and just having to stand there. Instead, now I can check the news headlines, the box score, see what is playing at the movies, send my dad a text and buy Bridget flowers, all before I get my Frappuccino.

We live in a time when we don't just have to sit through all those little moments of boredom.

I am not writing this as some sentimentalized, pining away for a pre-digital world. I truly appreciate the connectivity and the efficiency that the digital age brings.

However, I am aware that more than ever I am simply inundated with noise. And for me, all the noise can be distracting, making it hard to focus, listen and be present.

This week will begin a series of messages looking at the ways we can connect to God in the midst of a busy and noisy world. We begin this week with solitude and silence. One of my favorite writers, Henri Nouwen said it plainly but eloquently, "Without solitude it is virtually impossible to live a spiritual life...We do not take the spiritual life seriously if we don't set aside some time to be with God and just listen."

My relationship with silence and solitude is relatively new. I have been practicing Centering Prayer--extended time of silent prayer, for almost two years. And yes - I have found something there that I have not found anywhere else. I have found peace.

I will meet you in that quiet place this Sunday.

Grace and Peace,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Pastor Jeff". Below the "P" is a simple smiley face drawn with a circle and two dots for eyes and a curved line for a mouth.
