LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

This Sunday, you will welcome two new pastors to our community. Effective January 1, 2022, our Bishop David Allan Bard has appointed the Reverends Jennifer Tripoli and Bridget Nelson to the pastoral team of Royal Oak First. Neither of these women are new to us, as both have served as lay members of our staff for some time. We welcome them in their new roles as Associate Pastors. We officially welcome and install them as pastors at both of our worship experiences this Sunday.

Jennifer will be serving as our Executive Associate Pastor. Jennifer will continue to offer leadership in the administrative and financial areas of our church. Helping to provide order for the local church is one of the important roles that pastors play and Jennifer brings incredible gifts in these areas. In addition, Jennifer will expand her pastoral calling with visitations, worship leadership, and teaching. We are excited for the ways God will work through Jennifer's ministry among us.

Bridget will be serving as our Associate Pastor of Programs. Bridget will continue to offer leadership in Children, Youth and Families ministries as well as coordinate our program team which includes Missions, Congregational Care, New Member Welcoming and Adult Discipleship. Like Jennifer, Bridget brings incredible administrative gifts to our team and will continue to help bring order to our congregation. In her role as Associate Pastor, Bridget will bring a more sacramental presence to your Children, Youth and Family Programs, with more frequent experiences of Holy Communion and the renewal of baptism. In addition, she will participate more often in the teaching and preaching ministries of our church. We are grateful that Bridget has responded to God's call on her life and look forward to the ways her ministry will be a blessing to many.

Thank you Royal Oak First for being a community that nurtures a culture of call.

God is doing new and exciting things among us.

Grace and Peace,
