LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Merry Christmas!

On behalf of the entire Royal Oak First family, I welcome you on Christmas Eve. Whether you are connecting in person, online, on the front lawn or in your thoughts and prayers, we are so honored to share this moment together as a community.

We need Christmas. We need it this year more than ever.

The gift of Christmas changes everything we think we know about our lives. More than ever, our world may feel unsavable, and yet here tonight there is this baby named Jesus, which literally means “Save.” Our world and our lives often feel abandoned, and yet here tonight is this baby named Immanuel, “God with us.” But Christmas is not just about a baby and all of the romantic business. Christmas is about a word from God - a word that echoes back to the prophets of old:

*“Do not remember the former things,
Nor consider the things of old.
Behold, I am doing a new thing...”
--Isaiah 43:18-19*

That is what tonight is all about. The invitation to join in the “new thing” God wants to do within us, through us and among us. Christmas is our chance to stop and notice the newness that God is giving, that lets our life, and our world, start over in a fresh place. And yes, even in the midst of the messes of our current moment - there is a newness that is waiting to be realized.

So welcome to Christmas Eve. It is our prayer tonight that you hear the invitation to this “new thing” being born among us.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff
