BBQ & Book Discussion

BBQ & BOOK DISCUSSION

On Wednesday, July 27, 5:30-8:30 p.m. join us for a casual evening of BBQ and book discussion at the Troy home of Joyce and Tami Hollingsworth. They will host a backyard BBQ in their beautiful backyard with lovely gardens that will lead into an engaging discussion afterwards of the New York Times bestselling book Accidental Saints: Finding God in All the Wrong People. In Accidental Saints, author Nadia Bolz-Weber invites readers into a surprising encounter with the least likely of people - a church-loving agnostic, a drag queen, a felonious Bishop and a gun-toting member of the NRA. Accidental Saints demonstrates what happens when ordinary people share bread and wine, struggle with scripture together, and tell each other the truth about their real lives. This unforgettable account of their faltering steps toward wholeness will ring true for believer and skeptic alike. Scan the QR code or visit www.rofum.org to sign up.

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION PRACTICES

As our lives become more and more filled with distractions, activities, and responsibilities - and quite frankly some clutter - it becomes more important than ever that we make the time to defragment our minds and allow God space to work within and through us. There are so many things that take away from our Christian lives. Christian Centering Meditation can help to give us the opportunities that we need to discover, or re-discover, our center in Christ. This is a simple time-tested technique that has proven valuable to untold numbers of modern day saints. No need to sign up. Join us beginning Sunday, July 10 from 5:30-7:00 p.m. in the purple conference room on the 1st floor.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Happy Fourth of July weekend, my friends!

It is almost Independence Day and while we celebrate our nation's independence here at Church, we are going to talk about how we actually are dependent on each other.

In Luke's gospel, Jesus tries to spread the good news by using a model that frankly doesn't make a lot of sense to me. Actually, it makes me a bit crazy! Jesus sent people out two by two! I mean, wouldn't the good news be spread farther and wider sending people out individually? This caused me to stop and ask the question: Why is it so hard to accept that we can't do it all by ourselves?

Over the next few weeks, Pastor Jeff is going to be focusing on the theme of Blessed Dependence. We will look at what it means to be poor in spirit, how we do not have it all and how we have room to grow in our journey with Jesus. We'll start off giving thanks, finding a quiet place in our lives and finally recognizing that we all have limits.

I look forward to kicking off this journey with you on Sunday.

Blessings,
