TODAY IS PLEDGE CARD SUNDAY

As we have been hearing over the past three weeks, we have been talking about Royal Oak First being a community of water walkers; people committed to helping each other navigate life's storms. We are committed to caring for people at all ages and stages of life. We are committed to extending God's love to communities that too often get left out and left behind. We are a caring and generous people whose love extends beyond our walls to people both right outside our front door and people halfway around the world.

Pledge Card Sunday is the day we invite those who consider Royal Oak First their home church, to make their 2023 financial commitment to the transforming work of Christ through our mission and ministries.

Enclosed in today's Bulletin, you will find a 2023 Operating Pledge card. Please prayerfully consider how you will invest in the water walking ministries of Royal Oak First. Your estimate helps us plan and support the work that is so meaningful to all of us.

Your faithful generosity continues to make a difference here at Royal Oak First and around the world. We are excited to see how God will continue to use our gifts to bring transforming love and healing hope to the world.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Can I be honest with you?

I always feel awkward asking for money.

I suppose that awkwardness comes from the fear of being associated with televangelists who made us feel like God was always after our wallets. Or maybe that anxiety about asking for money comes from the worry that it might seem disingenuous to ask you to support that organization that provides for my salary. (And you have taken really good care of me and my family!!!!)

So I am doing something different this year. I am not making “the ask.” Instead, one of our long-time members, Josh Wright, will bring the message this week and tell us why he and his family are committed to investing in the mission and ministry of Royal Oak First.

Josh, his wife Liz, and their children, Virginia and Alfie, are connected in many important and vital ministries in the life of our church. From choir to hand bells, to teaching, to youth group, to Holy Cow, the Wrights show up with their gifts and resources to Make Christ’s Love Real.

In addition, Josh has taken on a new responsibility this year as our church historian. Josh knows our story. He knows what challenges we have faced as a community and he can testify how God has worked through faithful saints and servants on this corner for almost two hundred years.

Thank you Josh for making “the ask” this year. It is the faithful witness of people like you that God uses to make miracles happen.

You are invited to bring your pledge card with you this Sunday to worship at 9:00 a.m. or 11:00 a.m. You can always mail or drop it off at the office.

Thank you in advance for your faithfulness and generosity. With God’s help, we are truly making a difference.

Grace and Peace,
