LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

"The Lord is coming, always coming. When you have ears to hear and eyes to see, you will recognize him at any moment of your life. Life is Advent; life is recognizing the coming of the Lord."

--Henri Nouwen

"Hope is not the conviction that something will turn out well but the certainty that something makes sense, regardless of how it turns out."

--Vaclav Havel

Dear Friends,

And so it begins! Today is the first Sunday of Advent.

Advent is a season of waiting, a season of anticipation, a season of preparation.

So what are we waiting for? And what are we anticipating? And for what are we preparing?

We are waiting for Christmas. We are anticipating what might be waiting for us under the tree. We are preparing for parties, gatherings and all the "stuff" that we will try to fit into the next four weeks. (I get tired just thinking about it).

And in a religious sense, we might say we are waiting for the baby Jesus to be born in Bethlehem.

But that is not what we really are waiting for, is it?

No. We are waiting for the world to change. We are eagerly anticipating that God's Kingdom would come "On earth as it is in heaven." We are preparing for a world without hunger, poverty and war. A world where ALL God's children are welcome, included and safe.

So welcome to Advent. The world is waiting for us to show up and join Christ in the transformation of the world.

Grace and Peace,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Pastor" followed by a stylized flourish. Below the signature is a simple line drawing of a smiley face with two dots for eyes and a curved line for a mouth.

P.S. This Sunday evening, we take our Advent journey to the front lawn of the church at 6:00 p.m. to stand with our neighbors as we remember the five people targeted and murdered at Club Q in Colorado Springs. Join us as we continue to work to create safe spaces for EVERYONE to be their truest selves.
