We will discuss how our mistakes can be the foundation for our ongoing spiritual growth and how our losses can, from a spiritual perspective, be experienced as a gain. # LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

Community festivals matter. When I was in college I worked one summer on the campaign of someone running for Congress. What that meant was that every weekend I was in another small town for their annual festival, passing out literature and walking in parades.

I went to Minocqua's Beef-a-Rama, Thorp's Dairy Days, Rice Lake's Aquafest, Osceola's Rhubarb Fest, New Glarus' Beer, Bacon and Cheese Days (the holy trinity of Wisconsin cuisine) and Cedar's Grove Holland Days (and yes, the whole town was wearing wooden shoes!)

One thing I experienced that summer was the power these festivals and gatherings had on a community. They gave people a chance to come together, have fun, make memories and most importantly remember that they belong to one another.

Well, it is time for us to host our next community festival. I sure hope you will plan to come. We need to see each other and be reminded that we belong and are part of this place called Royal Oak First!

On Saturday, June 10 and Sunday, June 11 we will be celebrating Pentecost. We will be putting a big tent on the front lawn (and due to it being graduation season, I think we may have procured the last tent in the tri county area!) and holding festivities both Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

Saturday, June 10--Big Tent "Revival," Ice Cream Social and 1st Annual Cornhole Tournament: Join us at 4:00 p.m. under the tent for inspirational music and message, and after we will enjoy ice cream as we prepare to crown our 2023 Royal Oak First Cornhole Champion (complete with championship belts). We are asking everyone to bring either dish soap or laundry detergent for our Essentials Pantry.

Sunday, June 11--Pentecost Wear Red Worship: We will gather for worship on Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m. under the big tent. That morning we will introduce our summer theme, welcome little Zelda Diamond into the community through baptism and be joined together in song and prayer. After worship we will have a "gourmet" hot dog bar (thank you Larry Brown) and Bingo with fabulous prizes from Pastor Jeff's Prize Table! We are asking everyone in attendance that day to wear red and bring a dozen cookies to share for dessert and treats!

This will be a great way to kick off our summer together, have some fun and most importantly be reminded that we belong to one another.

Can't wait to see you "under the tent!"

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff Nelson
