“ALL GOD’S PEOPLE” SMALL GROUP DISCUSSION SERIES & RETREAT!

For over two years, the Racial Reconciliation Team has been faithfully meeting and learning about racism and racial reconciliation in a Christian context. The team has created a five-week version of this learning experience in small group settings starting in early October. Five topics will be covered: a biblical view of justice, the historical origins of racial designations, systemic racism in America, the traumatic impact of discrimination on people of color, and the history of racial discrimination within the United Methodist denomination. There is no homework and no book to read! Instead, a video for each week’s topic will be shown during each session followed by the Racial Reconciliation team facilitating a discussion of that topic. On Saturday, November 11 from 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. all the small groups will meet together for a half day retreat. It will be an opportunity to share our perspectives and insights on racial justice, build a sense of community, and create a common purpose around what the ministry of racial reconciliation can look like at Royal Oak First. Scan QR code to sign up for a small group and the retreat.

SOCK-IT-TO-ME SEPTEMBER (UNDERWEAR TOO!)

FRIENDS OF LITHUANIA GATHERING

As you know, we have a global partnership with the churches in Lithuania (this is where our Noisy Bucket offering goes). The last time we were together was in 2018 and what a great time we had sharing and getting to know one another along with strengthening our relationships to this ministry.

With that being said, you are invited to a Friends of Lithuania Gathering at Royal Oak First. This gathering will focus on connecting and recommitting ourselves to this ministry along with naming our own faith stories as a way to have deeper conversations with our partner churches here in the U.S. and Lithuania.

We will have other churches from all around the U.S. along with Rev. Remigijus Matulaitis from Lithuania in attendance for this weekend. Please prayerfully consider attending this important gathering as we continue our mission with our partner churches in Lithuania. You can find the registration form on the Connections Table. The cost is $125 per person that covers all meals (lunch & dinner on Friday and Saturday), along with refreshments, conference materials and programs. Please register by September 30.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

"Imagination will often carry us to worlds that never were. But without it we would go nowhere."

-Carl Sagan

"Where there is no vision, the people perish."

Proverbs 29:18

"The imagination must come before the implementation. Our culture is competent to implement almost anything and to imagine almost nothing."

-Walter Bruggemann - The Prophetic Imagination

"Someday we will find it, the rainbow connection. The lovers, the dreamers and me."

-Kermit the Frog

One of the most important things that God has entrusted to the community of faith is a prophetic imagination. A prophetic imagination is the ability to see beyond the limitations of our present circumstances. A prophetic imagination is the God-given gift of seeing the world as it was originally created.

Do me a favor and just pause for a minute and let's imagine the world as God intended.

What do you see?

When I do this I begin to see a world guided by justice, compassion and mercy. I dream of a world where peace reigns, where the marginalized and oppressed are uplifted, and where justice is served without prejudice and discrimination.

Friends, let us be a people of prophetic imagination.

That is why I am inviting you again to seriously consider joining one of our "All God's People" small discussion groups this fall. This is more than just a chance to learn new facts - this is our chance to imagine together the new world (maybe actually the original world) that we are invited to co-create together. You can sign up for one of our groups by scanning this QR code or stopping by our Connections Table.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff Nelson
