LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

“An individual has not started living until he can rise above the narrow confines of his individualistic concerns to the broader concerns of all humanity.”

-Reverend Dr. Martin Luther, Jr.

Dear Friends,

Today, we celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. King. Dr. King is more than an icon of social justice and racial equality, King’s ministry is a witness to the prophetic power of Christ’s Gospel when it is lived out in the world. We will not only celebrate and remember King’s ministry during our worship services this Sunday, but later that afternoon we will host The Greater Detroit District MLK Celebration. I encourage you to come and meet other United Methodist’s from across the Metro Detroit community, all whom are committed to the work of bringing the Kingdom of God closer. There is a reception at 2:30 p.m. with the service beginning at 3:30 p.m.

As a part of our Sunday services this week, we will be commissioning our leadership teams. I am thankful for the folks who answered the call to serve and help our church be healthy and strong. It feels appropriate to be doing it on the Sunday where we remember the life of Dr. King. King consistently called the church and the nation to serve the greater good.

And finally, I want to remind you to join me at the movies this Monday, where we will watch “The Color Purple” together. “The Color Purple” is the movie musical based on the award-winning book by Alice Walker. This is a part of our Faith & Film series where we watch a film on Monday and talk about it together in worship the following Sunday. The movies are at the MJR in Troy (100 E. Maple Road). They begin at 7:00 p.m. and tickets are $8.50.

See you in worship and see you at the movies.

Grace and Peace,
