Scripture

Luke 14:16-24

Jesus replied, “A certain man hosted a large dinner and invited many people.

When it was time for the dinner to begin, he sent his servant to tell the invited guests, ‘Come! The dinner is now ready.’

One by one, they all began to make excuses. The first one told him, ‘I bought a farm and must go and see it. Please excuse me.’

Another said, ‘I bought five teams of oxen, and I’m going to check on them. Please excuse me.’

Another said, ‘I just got married, so I can’t come.’

When he returned, the servant reported these excuses to his master. The master of the house became angry and said to his servant, ‘Go quickly to the city’s streets, the busy ones and the side streets, and bring the poor, crippled, blind, and lame.’

ORDER OF WORSHIP

The servant said, 'Master, your instructions have been followed and there is still room.'

The master said to the servant, 'Go to the highways and back alleys and urge people to come in so that my house will be filled.'

I tell you, not one of those who were invited will taste my dinner.'"

"How Great Thou Art"

Verse 1

*O Lord my God
When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds
Thy hands have made
I see the stars
I hear the rolling thunder
Thy pow'r thru'out
The universe displayed*

Chorus

*Then sings my soul
My Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art
Then sings my soul
My Savior God to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art*

ORDER OF WORSHIP

Verse 2

*When through the woods
And forest glades I wander
And hear the birds
Sing sweetly in the trees
When I look down
From lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook
And feel the gentle breeze*

Verse 3

*But when I think
That God His Son not sparing
Sent Him to die
I scarce can take it in
That on the cross
My burden gladly bearing
He bled and died
To take away my sin*

Verse 4

*When Christ shall come
With shout of acclamation
And take me home
What joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow
In humble adoration
And there proclaim
My God how great Thou art*

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

I came home from our Ash Wednesday Service to the news that there was a mass shooting during the Super Bowl Parade in Kansas City. The news reported that this was the 45th shooting this year and that to date, 75 people have lost their lives and more than 150 have been injured.

My heart continues to break for those impacted by these shootings. I know there will be lots of policy debates that will happen and lots of noise in the media about what we should or should not do to stop these acts of violence.

As I prayed over these moments and all the trauma that it has inflicted on our communities, I kept asking the Lord, "What can I do? What is my role as a Spiritual Leader?"

I waited in silence and then began to journal. And the words that I believe the Holy Spirit placed on the page were simply this: "Keep my table open, Jeff."

That I can do!

The open Communion Table offers a powerful symbol to the world.

In the midst of division it offers unity. In the midst of scarcity it offers abundance. In the midst of indifference it offers hospitality. In the midst of despair it offers hope.

And in the face of death, an open Communion Table offers the promise of resurrection!

Please know that I am not saying that simply coming to the communion table more often will end gun violence. That would be naive and dangerous.

However, I am saying that one thing the church can offer the world is a radically different image of how we can live together. And an open, inclusive, invitational and expanding table helps us to imagine that kind of world.

The Communion Table is one of few places where we experience the truth of Mother Teresa's words: "We have no peace, because we have forgotten we belong to each other."

We have work to do.

We will do the work while continuing to invite as many who will come to the table of God's radical and redeeming love.

Grace and Peace,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Pastor Jeff" in a cursive style. Below the signature is a simple line drawing of a smiley face with a small cross above it.
