PILLOWCASE ASSEMBLY WORKSHOP

On Monday, February 5th at 6:30 p.m., the Missions Team could use your help making children's pillowcases to donate to our friends at Cass Community Social Services. Every child who stays with them receives a new pillowcase and pillow to keep. Unfortunately, their supply has run out and they have asked if we could make pillowcases to help them restock. Everyone can help, no need to be able to sew! Additionally, we are asking to borrow sewing machines, irons, and fabric scissors and would gladly accept donated fabric and string. Scan the QR code for more information and to sign up.

MARCH GROWTH LAB— “CONTEMPLATING PRAYER”

When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, were they asking for a formula? Instead, what if we consider prayer as a means for connecting with the Divine above all else? At our March 2nd Growth Lab, we will explore metaphors for connecting to God and contemplative practices that can grow our awareness of God within and around us. Join us from 9:30 a.m.-noon for a time of learning, sharing, and practicing. Scan the QR code to sign up.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

In Fellowship Hall, on the lower level, hangs the pictures of all the pastors who have had the honor to serve this congregation. (Thankful to Owen and Paul Perkins for the display that tells this story.)

There have been at least 59 senior pastors in the nearly 200 years that Royal Oak First has existed. This week, we pause to give thanks for the life of Reverend Marshall Dunlap who entered into his eternal rest this past week. Marshall and his wife, Reverend Susan Dunlap, faithfully served this congregation from 1999-2009. I am thankful for his ministry, collegial spirit and friendship.

Pastor Bridget and I are particularly thankful for the model Marshall and Susan demonstrated as a clergy couple. They showed this congregation that spouses could work together in mutuality and respect and made it possible for couples like Bridget and myself to be welcomed as a team into ministry. The stories of Marshall and Susan's ministry here are significant. I hear lots of stories of Marshall's wonderful bass singing voice, his commitment to youth and wonderful dry sense of humor. Marshall and Susan made a commitment to a fuller inclusion of all God's people at a time when that was riskier and not always welcome. We have been able to "draw the circle wider" because of the work they did together. And on a personal note, when I went on my leave, Pastor Marshall was one of my colleagues who reached out to make sure I was ok. He was kind, curious and without judgment. It was a call that was necessary and needed at a time of personal struggle. I am proud to have been his colleague in ministry.

For those of you who were blessed by Pastor Marshall's ministry, I know this loss is personal. May God comfort you in your mourning. And for those of us who have connected to this movement since, just know that we are in large part who we are today because of the faithful witness of this humble, kind and caring man.

If you are wanting to send a note of personal condolences to Pastor Susan and her family, please reach out to the church office and we will be happy to provide you with an address.

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff Nelson

P.S. – You should be receiving your mailed invitation to our church-wide Visioning Day to be held on Saturday, March 9th soon. Please plan to be part of this important day of conversations that will clarify and set the direction for the next season of our life together. You can also RSVP your attendance right here by scanning this QR code.
