ANNOUNCEMENTS

HAVE YOU SIGNED UP FOR ROYAL OAK FIRST'S VISIONING DAY?

We need everyone to attend Royal Oak First's Visioning Day on Saturday, March 9 from 9:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m. to help us plan the future for our amazing church! We will be covering such questions as: Who are we? What is God calling us to do? Who are our neighbors? and more. We hope everyone will come and be present with us on this very important day. Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided and child care will be available. You can RSVP by using the QR code or look for your invitation in the mail.

FEEDING THE 5,000—SUNDAY, MARCH 17

In continuing with our Lenten Mission of "Feeding the 5,000", on Sunday, March 17, we are asking all of our church members to consider bringing shelf-stable food items with them to either service. These are items that can survive long periods on shelves (without the need of refrigeration), such as:

- Peanut Butter
- Rice
- Canned Veggies and Fruits
- Crackers
- Pasta/Pasta Sauce
- Dried Fruits

During Communion, we will be asked to bring these items forward as an offering for our local food pantries and mission partners, who are committed to providing resources for our friends and neighbors needing assistance with food security. When we look at our individual resources and reflect on how we can make a difference in the world, well...the task can feel a bit overwhelming, but when we work together...miracles can happen! Thank you for your continued support of our missions and your generosity during this Lenten season.

The Grief Recovery Method®
by The Grief Recovery Institute®

GRIEF RECOVERY METHOD WORKSHOP

The Grief Recovery Method is just that – a method – a step by step process – an “action program” - for unlocking and respecting the emotional experience of our grief and exploring different beliefs about grief – especially the ones holding us back in life. No matter the kind of loss you've experienced, there is room for everyone to heal. Mondays, starting April 1 for 8 weeks, ending May 20 from 5:30-7:30 p.m. There will be some homework in-between the in-person classes. The workshop is hosted by Royal Oak First United Methodist Church in Room 303 and is available for any community member to sign up. Workshop leader is Tami Hollingsworth-Dowd, Certified Grief Recovery Specialist® and Professional Coach. The cost is discounted at $200/person and limited to 15 people. You must register by March 24 if you want to participate! Scan the QR code to sign up!

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Greetings Friends,

Last year, I was in the Smoky Mountains on our church's annual Spring Trek. Most of the group was ahead of me because, well, I'm the slowest hiker ever. My trail name is "Caboose" because I'm always last. Anyway, as I was trudging along, I passed a young girl and she looked familiar to me, and then I saw a woman who looked familiar, and then I had to stop and turn to realize my cousin and his family were passing the other way on the trail! I had not seen my cousin, Joel, in probably 20 years. I see his pictures on Facebook so that's how I recognized his wife and daughter. But since they live in Wisconsin and I live in Michigan, it's fair to say it was a surprise to run into them in Tennessee!

You might have a similar story of not recognizing someone at first because they are out of context somehow. Times when you had to do a double take because the person you were seeing just did not fit into the context you were in. It speaks to how our brain groups and categorizes people and places. It's probably a good thing our brains do that, but it can cause some real confusion in moments like these.

This week, we will hear the story of the two guys who are on the road to Emmaus and don't realize that Jesus is walking with them. How did they come to recognize him eventually? The answer holds some ideas for what it means to be a community of faith.

I hope to see you Sunday!

Peace.
