LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

As you may know my voice has really been struggling this month. This happens from a combination of misuse and overuse. Every week it just seemed to get a little worse. Any advice about how to care for your vocal chords begins with the same advice:

Rest. Be quiet. Stop talking.

Which as you can imagine is hard for me both personally and vocationally. But I am trying. I stayed home this week and have spent most of the days simply not talking. I am calling it an unplanned Sabbatical.

This week has given me some time to slow down and listen - a rare gift in our fast paced world. As I listened to my heart this week it simply kept coming back to gratitude. I am so thankful to God for each and every one of you.

- ~ Thank you to those who show up to serve our children and youth.
- ~ Thank you to those who show up to usher, greet and serve coffee on Sundays.
- ~ Thank you to those who lend their voices and their instruments to lead us in worship.
- ~ Thank you to those who make sandwiches and meals and help people find clothes.
- ~ Thank you to those who bag laundry & dish soap and other non-food essentials for those in need.
- ~ Thanks to the hundreds of you who showed up to serve fish and another hundred who showed up to dream about our future.
- ~ Thank you to those who make a connecting call each month to check on our church family.
- ~ Thank you for your prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness.

All of this is what makes Christ's love real around here.

This Sunday, we will welcome over a dozen new members to our church community.

So much to be thankful for...

Looking forward to the walk toward Easter.

Grace and Peace,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Pastor Jeff" with a simple smiley face drawn below the name.
