Significant changes were passed impacting the local church on a variety of issues including LGBTQ+ inclusion. Royal Oak First member and United Methodist Deacon Christina Wright was there and will be sharing with us a breakdown of the changes. This is an exciting time for our denomination and we look forward to sharing updates with you. Join us on Sunday, May 19 at 7pm on Zoom. All are welcome. The Zoom link will be supplied in next Monday's email.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Friends,

As I write this note, I have this profound craving for meatloaf. Kind of strange, right?

Why suddenly a midday craving for meatloaf?

Probably because I am thinking about Mother's Day and missing my mom. And my mom made the best meatloaf – oh, I am sure you think your mom made a good meatloaf, but I'd put Kathy Nelson's meatloaf up against anybody's.

That's the thing about love - it's about specificity.

We don't just love people in general, we love them in detail.

It is about band aids on scraped knees and reading Where the Wild Things Are. It is about peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and sitting at the edge of my bed when I was scared. It is playing double solitaire and listening to Elvis. And it is about meatloaf.

What details help you remember your loved ones?

Mother's Day is a day to remember all the mothers, grandmothers, aunts, and "other mother" figures who have touched our lives. Let us also remember those who may find Mother's Day difficult, whether due to loss, distance, or other circumstances, and offer them our support and understanding.

There are lots of ways to remember our moms and the countless other women who have shaped our lives. I pray you find some meaningful ways to remember them. I, for one, will be having meatloaf!

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Jeff Nelson
