For this year's Advent Mission Project, we will be collecting children's Christmas gifts for area families who are struggling financially. You can pick one or two tags off our "giving tree" on the Connections Table in the Gathering Space. Shop for those items and return them unwrapped to the church collection bins by December 15. But feel free to bring in any fun, unwrapped toy of your choice, as the giving tree simply gives ideas for those who need them. These gifts will help stock the Cass Community Social Services Christmas Store where nearly 300 families in Detroit will "shop" for their kids' Christmas gifts.

LETTER FROM OUR PREACHER

Dear Friends,

It is an honor and privilege to break open the scriptures with you today as preacher. Today we celebrate the Third Sunday of Advent sometimes called by its Latin name: Gaudete Sunday, the Latin word for “rejoice,” as the lectionary’s scripture texts keep repeating the phrase “rejoice” over and over again. Congratulations! We’ve journeyed together more than halfway through Advent and are rapidly approaching Christmas. In the hustle and bustle of Christmas preparations, I hope you can find and keep joy amid the chaos.

While for many Christmas is a time for joy, for some in our community, it’s not a festive season. There are many among us dealing with losses: deaths of loved ones or pets, job losses, children or friends who’ve moved far away, loneliness, or even the divorce of a long marriage. It’s important in this time of joy to remember those among us who are grieving. This Thursday, December 19th at 7:00 p.m. we will have a Longest Night (Blue Christmas) Service to give an opportunity to make space and acknowledge our friends who are struggling through the holidays. Even if you’re not experiencing pains of loss, your presence is a beautiful gift of support to those in our community of faith who are.

As these last Advent days and the countdown to Christmas ticks on, may you be filled with hope, peace, joy, and love.

Yours in Christ,
Michael Rosas
