MOMS AT PUBS (MAP)

Calling all moms—of all stages of life! Whether your babies are 10 days old, 15 months old, or fully grown, you're invited to join us for Moms at Pubs. We meet on the 4th Thursday of each month to share conversation, enjoy a meal, and relax over a drink together. Our next meet up will be Thursday, October 23 at 7:00 p.m. at Cantaritos Mexican Bar & Grill, 386 N. Main Street, Royal Oak, MI 48067. Come connect, laugh, and unwind with other moms who understand the joys (and challenges!) of motherhood. If you would like to be added to the monthly email blast, please contact Pastor Jennifer at jtripoli@rofum.org.

TRUNK-OR-TREAT WITH KIDS EMPOWERED

Our Missions Team will be participating in a Trunk-or-Treat event hosted by Kids Empowered on Saturday, October 25, 4:30-6:30 p.m. The event takes place in the parking lot at an Auburn Hills hotel where Kids

Empowered has helped many struggling families find temporary housing. These families do not have a neighborhood to attend traditional trick-or-treating, so this Trunk-or-Treat event is especially meaningful for these children. We would love your help to make this event special! Please scan the QR code to sign up.

Take a moment to express your gratitude, whether it's with a card, a small gift, a sweet treat, or even a simple email of thanks. We are truly blessed by their leadership, care, and presence in our lives!

Consecration Sunday is Coming

Over the next few weeks, we will be mentioning that Consecration Sunday is coming, because we want to give you time to prayerfully consider what God might be inviting you to financially commit towards the life of our church.

Our goal this year is to approach financial stewardship from a biblical perspective rather than thinking about giving merely to help the church pay its bills. Our congregation's Compass Team has selected the Consecration Sunday Stewardship Program focused on biblical and spiritual principles of giving as a response to what God has done for us.

Consecration Sunday is based on the principle that giving is part of the giver's personal spiritual discipline and we want to practice being followers of Jesus Christ who want to give unselfishly as an act of discipleship. Consecration Sunday encourages people toward proportionate and systematic giving in response to the question, "What percentage of my income is God nudging me to give?"

During worship services on Consecration Sunday, November 9, we will ask each of you to make your financial commitment to our church's ministries. Our guest leader, Pastor Brad Bartelmay, will provide a brief period of inspiration and instruction that will allow members to make their commitments as a confidential act of worship.

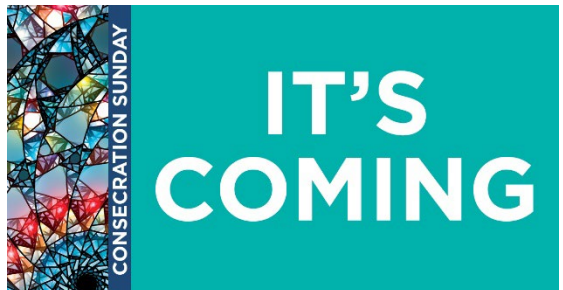

You will continue to hear about Consecration Sunday from the Compass and Consecration Sunday teams. We will make every effort to inform, inspire, and motivate everyone to attend Consecration Sunday worship. If you have any questions about what this means, please contact Rick Buxton, Consecration Sunday Chair or Pastor Jennifer Tripoli.

Thanks in advance for your enthusiastic participation in Consecration Sunday events!

Grace and Peace,

Amy Rhoades, Compass Team Chair

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Beloved Community,

Get ready—it's almost here! Mark your calendars for November 9th! You won't want to miss being at church that day. Trust me!

Why, you ask? Because we are celebrating Consecration Sunday!

That's right! We're pulling out all the stops, and yes, there will be a scrumptious brunch following both services. I mean, who doesn't love a good brunch? It's like breakfast and lunch had a baby, and it's absolutely glorious!

So, why are we celebrating, you wonder? It's simple—God's abundant blessings to us! If I were to ask you right now what you are most thankful for, what would spring to mind? Maybe it's your family, your friends, or that incredible new pair of shoes you found on sale! And if I were to ask you how Royal Oak First has blessed you—what comes to mind? The warmth of our community? The uplifting music? Our transformational missions? Or perhaps your ability to keep a straight face while I deliver my dad jokes?

Here's a freebie: Why did Noah have to discipline the chickens on the ark? Because they were using fowl language!

We'll be celebrating the joy of this community and our lives together on November 9th, and I can't stress enough that you won't want to miss it. For more details, please see Amy Rhoades' note inside the Bulletin.

Oh, and just a friendly reminder: it will also be the day we fill out our annual financial commitment cards at church. Yes, I know that sounds super serious, but I promise it's all part of the celebration!

Think of it as a way to invest in our future together—a future filled with even more blessings, laughter, and maybe a few extra dad jokes. Okay, here's one more: Why did the scarecrow become a pastor? Because he was outstanding in his field! Sorry, not sorry!

So, mark your calendars now, folks! You won't want to miss out on what promises to be a joyful day filled with gratitude, community, and of course, delectable food!

Grace and Peace,
