GROWTH LAB SERIES

What if choosing peace was a practical skill you could develop? Jesus calls us to be peacemakers, but in a divided world, how do we actually live that out? Join us for five sessions (Saturday mornings, January 10-February 7, 9:30-11:30 a.m., led by Nicole Wilson) exploring concrete tools to respond with curiosity instead of judgment. We'll practice asking better questions in difficult conversations, understand how our positions developed, and strengthen connections even when we disagree. Whether navigating family tensions, workplace conflicts, or simply wanting to grow in Christ-like love, this workshop offers a space to practice new patterns together. Scan the QR code to sign up.

LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear Beloved Community,

And just like that—here we are! It's the last Sunday of Advent, and as we round the final corner, let's focus on what this whole journey is truly about—LOVE! Yes, that's right! Everything in our story is pointing us toward love.

The star in the sky? A sign of love.

Mary and Joseph finding room for a miracle? An incredible act of love.

The angels showing up to the often-forgotten night shift shepherds? A glorious word of love!

And those wise folks (who says they were men?) bringing gifts? Yep, gifts of love—even if the myrrh was a bit of a strange choice for a baby!

The one born in that manger would literally become God's love made real—teaching love, preaching love, acting with love, dying for love, and then rising again in the name of love. This whole journey is like one big love letter, tucked into every detail so we don't miss it.

Sometimes, it feels like the world is missing it right now, doesn't it? That's why it's so essential to soak up all the love this season has to offer in these next few days.

Join us this Sunday morning as we light one more candle!

And don't forget, at the 11:00 a.m. service, we'll be graced by the time-honored tradition of our Children's Christmas Pageant! There's nothing cuter (or more honest) than kids reenacting the joy and wonder of the birth of Christ. Bring your tissues, folks—it's a real heart-warmer!

Then come back Sunday night for our Longest Night Service at 7:00 p.m.—where we'll sit together in the darkness and feel the love, even in the midst of loss.

Mark your calendars for Christmas Eve! Join us at any or all of our services (4 p.m., 7 p.m., 9 p.m., 11 p.m.)—if you manage to attend all four, I'll personally gift you a special T-shirt. I'm serious!

And on Thursday, Robert and the volunteers at Outreach on 7th will be back to serve a meal and throw a Christmas party for our unhoused neighbors and other friends. It'll feel a lot like that manger from that first Christmas—angels, shepherds, and gift-givers all sharing the love of God.

Thank you for making this journey with us. Let's spread the love this season!

Grace and Peace,
